NEWTON "Y" TO OBSERVE YMCA CENTENNIAL IN JUNE

To Participate in Five-Day Program Of All Greater Boston Associations

In observance of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the YMCA in London in 1844, the Newton Y will be tendered a birthday party by the civic club of the city on Monday, June 5, and will participate in a five-day series of events scheduled by the Centennial Committee of Greater Boston Associations. It was announced yesterday by Clarence R. Mease, General Secretary.

Newton's YMCA birthday party will be sponsored by the Rotary Club and shared by the Kiwanis, Lions and Chamber of Commerce. The hosts will also honor Edward Bacon, charter member, who is still a familiar figure at the Y after 67 years of continuous association.

Musically talented young people of Newton have been invited to compete for three $200 scholarships as part of this celebration, one of the winners to perform with the Boston Symphony Orchestra at "Pops Night" on Friday evening, June 2.

These scholarships are offered through the cooperation of the New England Conservatory of Music. There will be one in voice, one in stringed instruments, and a third in wood-winds or brass. The competition is open to any high school graduate of 1943 and to seniors of the 1944 class.

Saturday, June 3, a tremendous sports program will be held in Harvard Stadium.

Sunday, June 4, churches in Newton will observe world YMCA Church Sunday.

The climax of the Centennial celebration will be reached Tuesday, June 6, which has been designated as "Second Century Day." At noon on this day a luncheon will be held at Boston City Club. The Centennial Dinner will be held Tuesday evening at the Copley Plaza Hotel, where the scholarship winners will be presented. Speakers will include Dr. John R. Mott, president, World's Alliance of YMCAs, and President James B. Conant of Harvard University.

On June 6, 1844, the Young Men's Christian Association was born when George Williams, a young man employed in a draper's shop in London, gathered 12 of his associates together in the shop one evening when they drew up the first constitution and by-laws.

In 1851 the Boston organization was founded, the first YMCA in the United States.

Active in Centennial plans for the local organization are the officers of the Newton Y, of which Frederick Sayford Bacon is president, Frederick Hawkins, vice-president, Henry Dunker, treasurer, and Eldred Peterson, clerk. The Newton Y was founded 67 years ago in 1877.

In 1916 the Frank A. Day summer camp at Brookfield was started, and since that time has been one of the outstanding features of the Y program. It was named for the man whose vision and generosity made it possible.

The Newton YMCA boasts a distinguished board of directors, among them the new Supreme Court Justice, John V. Spillane and Dr. E. O. Giles of Andover Newton Theological School. Professor Kirtley Mather of Harvard is also on the board, as are Frank A. Day, Jr., and Thomas E. Shirley, who will head the Newton Community Fund Drive next year.

Duane and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lambert. Four or more in service: Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Burns (4), Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacLean (4), Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. McGough (6), and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Cote (4).

President Roy L. McQuillan of Lexington spoke briefly on the objectives of "War Parents," with special emphasis on "a lasting peace negotiated with gold star mothers and families sitting as representatives of the common people of all nations at the peace table. Mr. McQuillan has accepted an invitation to be present next month to present Governor and Mrs. Saltonstall with "War Parents' lapel buttons as symbolic of their membership."

Eddie Lyons brought another of his high-grade shows to "War Parents' free of charge, chosen from his group of 32 available acts which perform as "Eddie Lyons Military Entertainers."

Mr. Moriarty has reached a new total of 120 members enrolled personally for his chapter. Others who have been especially active are Mr. and Mrs. John O. Brown, Oswald Patrick, Mrs. Harry Van Wart and Mrs. Lewis D. Wood.

At the luncheon which was attended by a very large gathering, Mrs. Irving O. Palmer gave the invocation and Miss Estelle G. Marsh, president of the hostess club, extended a cordial greeting and the hospitality of her club. Seated at the head table with Mrs. Alden H. Speare, who resumes as president at this time, were seven past-presidents of the federation, Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, Mrs. J. Earle Parker, Mrs. Samuel N. Braman, Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., Mrs. Ernest Cobb, Mrs. Irving O. Palmer and other special guests.

It was reported that the recent Sale for the Blind would total $1800 as against $1350, in 1943. Mrs. Shorwood, chairman of Christmas Health Seals reported a final figure of $8842.66 and Miss Ball a grand total of $5484.37 in philanthropies. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, chairman of War Service, gave a full account of the work of the Women's Clubs in Newton in making knitted garments, layettes, furnishing hospital rooms, Christmas bags and other comforts for service men and their families.

She also reported that through the sale of War Bonds and Stamps, the clubs have purchased 47 field ambulances with plaques naming the donors placed in ten, and two ambulance planes. Mrs. Vernon Blagbrough gave a comprehensive report of all standing committees and Mrs. Dunlop one for all associate members, both reports showing activity and progress in all departments.

After all matters of business had been attended to, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson, program chairman, who presented the well known baritone, Franklin G. Field, in an interesting program of songs. A perfect spring day, an unusually large attendance, a very good luncheon, a well organized and interesting business meeting, finished off by an artistic musical program, all went toward making this 49th Annual Meeting of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs one long to be remembered by those fortunate enough to have attended.

END OF WINTER

Winter has gone and left no traces Save patches of snow in the deeps of the wood.
Blackbirds are seeking their old marshy places.
Skunk cabbage puts on her curious hood.
Wild geese fly north in orderly wedges.
Following their leader's shrill, ran-cous call.
Sparkling in rainbow o'er moss covered ledges.
Leaps, unfettered, the waterfall.
Trailing the sunny, old upland pasture.
Arbutus, pink as an ocean shell.
Yellow as gold of forgotten masters.
Crocus are flaming; their buds
foretell
Violets will open their starry eyes.
And muskrats will waken from dreams of spring.
Twittering with joy and glad surprise.
Bluebirds are teaching their young to sing.

Newton Notables

NOMINATED
for the
HALL OF FAME

In our last column dealing with Newton Notables, on April 20, we delved into the exceedingly interesting background and career to Mr. Edward Elwell Whiting of Newtonville. This week we shall try to make it clear that the prominent, outstanding citizens of Newton are very evenly divided between the two sexes, despite the greater publicity frequently given to the men. Incidentally, it should be recorded that the change in emphasis this week is quite arbitrary. Nobody has criticized us for featuring twelve influential gentlemen in our first six columns.
On the contrary, many complimentary letters and phone calls
have been received from all parts of the city.

Curiously enough, and quite by accident, the first lady of prominence to be featured in this column is Mrs. Francis J. Flagg of Newtonville, who interviewed six national celebrities last night at the meeting of the Woman's Association of the Central Congregational Church. It is interesting to note that only one of these six celebrities was a man, that brilliant architect, Charles Collins.

Mrs. Francis J. Flagg, writer, editor and lecturer, was born in Moravia, New York, on May 1.
Her parents were B. Frank Buchanan and Julia (McCormick)
Buchanan. She received her education at the Moravia High School and at Syracuse University, where she won her A.B. in 1908.
Boston University gave her an
A.M. in 1927.

On Oct. 7, 1914, she married
Francis John Flagg of Buffalo,
New York. The couple had three children, David Buchanan, deceased, Julia Buchanan and Nancy Ferard Buchanan.

From 1911 to 1913 Mrs. Flagg
was head of the English Department at the Palmyra, N. Y., High School; in 1913 to 1914 she was similarly engaged in Watertown, N. Y. From that point on she has been giving the bulk of her time to education, writing, lecturing and editing. Readers of the GRAPHIC may be interested to learn that quite a bit of this talented lady's writing has been so-called "ghost writing." For the benefit of the uninitiated, this is the term applied to articles, stories and speeches which are actually written, but not delivered, by someone other than the supposed author. Politicians, especially,
make frequent use of the versatile ghost-writer, partly because they are pressed for time and partly because many of our public servants are not unduly facile with their pens. The same may be said of many prominent businessmen,
who have vital messages to get across to the public, but have neither the time nor the ability to write their own writing.

We realize, of course, that statistics are frequently dry reading,
but the subject of this week's sketch is so versatile and has had such a colorful career that it seems appropriate to mention a few of the activities which have taken up Mrs. Flagg's time. She was a director of American Students Abroad, 1929-1933; President of the Newton Motion Picture Council, 1933-1940; Vice-President of the Boston City Federation, 1938-1940; director of the Flagstaff
Radio Hour on Station WCOP, 1935-1937; director of the New-

the privilege of seeing this accomplished lady in action; director of the Newton Women's Club, Professional Women's Club, 1931-

Woman's Press Association (Pres-ciation of University Women (State

ates School Alumni Association (President 1935-1937) etc. etc.

Mrs. Flagg's club activities include membership in Boar's Head, Newtonville Woman's Club, Professional Women's Club (President 1931-1933), Boston Authors' and Presidents' of Mass. (President, 1937-1938).

As an author, Mrs. Flagg wrote Community English—1921; Theories of Literary Genius—1927;
Camera Adventures in Africa—1935; Plymouth Maid—1937 and A Boy of Salem—1939. In addition, she has, of course, written countless articles for the newspapers and magazines. Also, she is editor of (6 books) Study Outlines in Pocket Classics, 1921-1923; A Certain Rich Man (by William Allen White, now deceased), 1923
and 1930.

Frequent travel in the happy days when travel was possible
has broadened this lady's viewpoint. She has been to Europe many times and also to Northern Africa and the Near East.
And finally, before we draw the curtain, it should be recorded that Mrs. Flagg is a descendant of Robert Hicks of Southwark, London, England, who came to Plymouth Colony in November, 1621, on the ship Fortune.

Although Mrs. Flagg was for some time at 51 Oakwood rd., she is currently living at 99 Kirkstall rd., Newtonville, not very far away. May I suggest the wisdom of contacting her prior to calling on her, however, if you wish to be sure of catching her. Her numerous activities take her here, there and everywhere. When you finally catch up with her you have a treat in store for you.

Hog Mange
The other form of hog mange is demodectic. There is no known cure for this form of mange, but it spreads less rapidly and its effect on animals is less severe than common mange. The best way to get rid of demodectic mange is to dispose of the affected animals and disinfect
the quarters they occupied.

Presidential Primaries

Something may be salvaged
from the humiliating spectacle of the recent Presidential Primaries in this state. The chances are that the heads of the two major parties will immediately get together and plan a change in the present system. Readers of the Boston Herald may have read the excellent letter in the Mail Bag
written by the Town Clerk of Brookline, Arthur J. Shinnery, who is a member of a commission studying our election laws. Shinnery pointed out the futility of spending $80,000.00 for ballots
alone on April 25, to say nothing of spending another $200,000 for election officers, etc.

What was accomplished? Public-spirited communities like Newton and Brookline cast less than five per cent of their total vote.
It is almost unbelievable. However
I witnessed it with my own eyes.
At five o'clock on the day of the primaries, your columnist's vote was No. 18 in a precinct having over 1700 voters. A neighboring precinct had just cast its 24th vote. This was typical of the situation in Brookline and in practically every other community in Massachusetts.

Let's get back to the old system
of electing our city and town committees on the day of the state primary. Then we will not have the farce enacted in a town not far away where a few industrious Republicans got together and nominated a slate of "good" Democrats to serve their party for the coming year. The local Democrats appear to have been remis-s in their duties. They failed to file a slate of candidates, so the G.O.P. went to bat for them at the eleventh hour and filed their own idea of a Democratic slate.

Another comment. One staunch Republican in Newton told me last week that he resented the fact that he was unable to register his preference for a Presidential candidate on April 25. This state used to have a Presidential preference act which gave us all an opportunity to declare our preferences.
The Legislature can take care of this situation before the next presidential election rolls around. I trust that they will take the necessary steps.

Robert T. Bushnell Retires

There will be mixed feelings regarding the recently announced retirement of our brilliant Attorney General, Robert T. Bushnell.
This gentleman has, unfortunately, made a number of very powerful enemies in the course of his administration of the legal affairs of the state. In many instances,
it seems likely that these enemies are a credit to Bushnell, who has been utterly fearless in the conduct of his office. A man cannot possibly attempt to clean up rotten messes without stepping on stepping on important toes. Sometimes they are the toes of rather prominent and apparently respectable citizens. Without, of course being so bold as to mention specific names, may I suggest that the public at large would be well served by the presence of a more moderate and less capable lawyer in Boston whose ideals fall far short of what we in Newton would consider commendable.
Then, too, there are quite a few powerful politicians of the professional variety who have been living off the public for many, many years. Naturally, they are resisting having a man like Bushnell take command of the situation and attempt to break up their little game. On top of that, there are the plain racketeers whom no good citizen would defend for a minute.
These men spend their lives in molesting the public and they did not propose to have Bushnell or anybody else put them out of business.

In summation, may I say that Bob Bushnell, who unquestionably erred at times in matters of judgment and finesse, was, on the whole, an earnest and brilliant people's advocate, who made a record which future incumbents of his office will have a hard time equaling. It is my sincere belief that history will give to this man a higher place than contemporary writers may care to. Good-luck to you, Bob Bushnell.

Democratic Primaries
The results in Alabama, Florida, Maryland, and elsewhere in the country are about to reveal the strength of the anti-fourth term movement. At the moment, it is too early to attempt to comment very intelligently. However, it is fair to say that Mr. Roosevelt is not going to get very much comfort from these primaries. Even in Massachusetts, the Ely vote must have been a bit disturbing to the administration. Ely ran altogether too close to Majority Leader McCormack. Senator Pepper of Florida is having some little trouble also, especially as compared with his last appearance on the ballot. These are straws in the wind. Next week it will be possible to appraise the results with some degree of accuracy. In the meantime, the administration is keeping its fingers crossed.

Owing to the rules of the school board, the class picture for the pupils of the high school will not be completed. The fact that it is not desirable to use the schools as an advertising medium and that the time occupied in the process of photographing interfered with the school studies were among objections urged.

The court record this week comprises 13 cases as follows: insan-

disturbance of the peace, 1; viola-

If the top of Waban Hill, New-being high and commanding, a good view of Boston and the har-

If the City accepted the six acres and lay out drives, as they probably will, sightseers would be well rewarded by a drive to the top of this pretty hill.

finally hustled out of the other

saw visions of damages before him, but the animal was very well be-

On April 29th, the occasion of the 14th anniversary of the Won-ton's Benevolent Society, the old First Church of Newton Centre was a beautiful sight.

The members of St. John's Church, Newtonville, the Rev.
Richard T. Loring, rector, crowded the church last Sunday morning to pay tribute to the memory of the men who gave their lives in the Great War.

One of the most successful community events ever held in Newtonville was the Pop Concert and Dance held Saturday at Temple Hall, for the benefit of the Junior League for Newton Hospital Social Service, in place of the Newtonville May Breakfast. Society turned out on massed numbers participated in the festivities, and the number was limited
only by the size of the hall.

MEN'S CLUB OF NEWTON HIGHLANDS

A joint meeting of the retiring and the incoming Executive Committees was held at the residence of former President Sidney H. Baylor, 3 Bradford rd. It was the occasion of demonstrated appreciation to the officers who have just concluded a most successful season, including former Treasurer James E. Denny, Civics Committee Chairman Edward F.
Connelly and President Baylor.

Officers for 1944-45 are: Wallace G. Strathern, President; Edward A. Terkelsen, Vice-President; Donald K. Tarbell, Secretary; Edward B. Peters, Treasurer; Frank Seeley, Program Committee Chairman; Albert S.
Genske, Membership Committee
Chairman; Earl M. Dushette, Bowling Committee Chairman,
and Lyman W. Whitcomb, Civics Committee Chairman. A special committee for the promotion of a softball tournament during the summer months is under the chairmanship of Kenneth Lee.

Plans and budgets for the coming season were outlined and discussed. It is expected that the first meeting of the fall season will be another knockout, with an attraction of unparalleled nature.
The club has a present membership of 174, and has shown a stable condition financially and numerically during the past difficult year. The good work done, and the activities to which the club is committed for the future, merits the increasing support and interest which is being demonstrated in the Highlands toward this civic enterprise.

Whither Post War World

By J. T. MacVICAR

General Karl von Clausewitz,
one of the founders of the modern theory of war, defines war: "As the continuation of politics mixed with other means." That other means is military effort to compel our opponent to submit to our will.
Thus a doctrine of war is a statement of political objectives to be attained and the military strategy
employed to win those objectives,
at a given period and against a specific enemy.

Mr. Hull, in a recent discussion of our foreign policy, stated that the political objective of our war
in Europe is: "The destruction of the Nazi and Fascist systems, and to co-operate with other anti-Fascist nations in establishing machinery to implement peace."

Therefore in the larger sense we are not at war in Europe to conquer a group of nations, to get territory, or to give us control of new sources of raw material and an outlet for surplus commodities;
nor are we interested in adding population to our national account that we could use as cheap cannon fodder in future wars of aggression or defense. Rather we are at war to destroy the Fascist economic system and its ideological basis because of its inherent aggressive characteristics which ultimately lead to war. Consequently there can be no compromise with any Fascist state, belligerent or neutral. All governments functioning according to the Fascist economic concept must be destroyed and replaced by either Democratic Capitalist, or Communist systems. There is no other alternative if victory is to yield the fruitage of lasting peace.

True, adversity has made strange bed-fellows. In the chemi-calization of economic ideas, the law of survival compelled the fusion of the military factors of two opposing economic philosophies to meet on a common ground to destroy a universal enemy. That is the situation as it exists and for our own security we have to make the best of it, and that best is not served by fostering enmity and creating obstructions based on falsities, superstition and a flagrant disregard of facts by a widely spread section of our press and irresponsible commentators. Peace in the post-war world depends:

First—The absolute destruction of the Fascist ideology wherever it is found, by both military and peaceful means.

Second—The intelligent and energetic support of the machinery for the peaceful adjustment of economic and political problems,
set up at the Moscow and Teheran conferences. The road to peace will be no path of flowers. There are difficult problems to be solved and it will require sagacity and magnanimity not only on the part of those who are actively engaged in the peace negotiations but also on the part of the people in the Allied Nations.

In evaluating the part that we must play in this drama of peace and security, or war and destruction that awaits the post-war world, it is well to recall the history of the frustrated peace efforts after World War I. Our participation in the First World War was to save our investment in England and France, clothed with high-sounding slogans as
"Same the World for Democracy," etc. Our military effort was a success, but as a people we did not understand politics involved and consequently our peace effort failed to produce the results hoped
for. This failure let the international imperialists at home and abroad dominate the peace planning and garner the fruits of victory, which our military and industrial effort made possible.

All our good intentions and lofty principles are of little worth in a raw world, if they are not protected by an alert and intelligible understanding of the economic and political problems of war and peace, and how these forces function to shape national and international destiny. To understand and direct the function of political and economic agencies are our sacred rights and privileges in a free democracy. The harvest from this heritage will be in direct proportion to the active utilization of it by each citizen.

No pale sickly whimpering
about the machinations of selfish-vested interests, international gangsters, dishonest political bureaucrats or national Fascists
will compensate for the curtailed
loss of your liberty because you were too busy having a good time, too egotistically aloof
to take part in politics, or too mentally lazy to get an understanding of the orderly process of economic development in a progressive democracy. "The stream can rise no higher than its source."

7600 Names Now On Honor Roll

The Honor Roll, erected last year on the City Hall grounds at Walnut st. and Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre, now contains the names of 7600 Newton men and women who have entered the service of their country.

The Honor Roll Committee, headed by Commissioner Edmund F. Dungan, has been able to keep abreast of the number of men entering the armed services through the draft boards, but has had to rely on the families of the women who have joined the services for information concerning them. Many names have been coming in to the committee since the Honor Roll was established last year.

West Newton gave a talk on his experiences in fighting the Japa-

On May 18 Newton Post and the auxiliary will hold a joint Me-

About 200 were present at the meeting on Friday night and Com-

nearly 100 persons had attended the Ladies' Night held at the Au-

Newton Post had conducted two stands to distribute oranges to the Marathon runners on Patri-

Refreshments were served at

Quiet and Shy

By MEREDITH SCHOLL
Associated Newspapers.
WNU Features.

WHEN there are two men and a girl involved there is bound to be trouble. Especially when the girl is as good looking as Simone Mill.

She had reddish hair and greenish eyes, and she liked sports. We invited her to spend a couple of weeks with us at camp, not knowing, of course, that Val Marcus was going to surprise us with a visit. We hadn't planned on Val. In fact, we had hoped that Simone and Neil Spangler, who painted pictures for a living and owned the camp across the cove where he lived with motherly Mrs. Nesbit, his housekeeper, would find a good deal of interest in each other.

Simone, who had been used to the big strong athletic type, liked him. They got along fine. Then Val arrived, and we decided she had been only marking time with Neil until somebody more like herself came along.

I'd met Val out west the summer before and asked him to drop in and see us if he ever came east. He was too handsome for his own good. More, he had that natural, instinctive co-ordination between brain and muscles that makes good athletes.

The first few days Val was with us Simone didn't see Neil. That made me feel bad. I know Neil and I know Val. The latter is too loud, too sure of himself, too boastful. In the final analysis he wouldn't be able to give a girl as much as Neil.

"You dope," I told him the day I walked over and found him sitting on his front porch brooding, "if you love the girl, why don't you do something about it? You do love her, don't you?"

He smiled without rancor. "Yes," he said, "she's the first girl I've ever really loved."

"That's dandy!" I told him sarcastically. "So you love the lass and you're willing to sit here like a bump on a log and watch a windbag like Val Marcus walk off with her."

"There isn't anything I can do," he told me patiently. "She's had a week to find out what I'm like. It's only fair that she has a week to find out what Val's like. Then she'll have to make her own decision."

"Well, I'll be —!" I stalked back through the woods. Simone and Val had gone swimming. Mary, my wife, was alone on the porch. "That duffer!" I told her. "Sitting there as calm as you please and letting this guy with the movie actor profile sell his girl the idea what a wonder he is." I told her what Neil had said.

Mary smiled. Curiously, there is a similarity about Mary and Neil. They are both quiet and shy, yet they both seem to get what they want.

"I wouldn't worry about Neil," she said. "Neil's smart." That may be all right. I could agree with her that Neil was smart. But so was Val Marcus. Besides being smart Val was good looking and smooth.

In the week that followed Mary had Neil over to dinner almost every night, and seeing him again had its effect on Simone. After all, there was definitely something about Neil that had an appeal. You could see that half the time she was undecided and worried and unhappy. Val could see it, too, and he apparently worked on the premise that the less Simone was exposed to Neil the better his chances would be. So after dinner he always suggested a swim, or canoeing in the moonlight or climbing a mountain or something; things at which he was good. Neil, the dope, never made any objections. Half the time, though Simone urged him; he didn't accompany them. It made me disgusted.

In fact, I was about ready to admit that Neil didn't, after all, have the stuff I thought he had. Then one night just before dinner he came by in his outboard and asked Val to go fishing. He knew, he said, where there was a big one they could knuckle onto before time to eat.

Val couldn't very well refuse. Simone and Mary and I sat on the porch and watched them put across the lake. Neil headed directly for the opposite shore and when they were about half a mile out he cut his motor. It was a still, clear evening, so still that you could hear very small sounds out on the lake. You could hear the rattle of things in the boat. You could hear the sound of voices.

Dusk had come. We three sat very still. We could hear Val's boastful tone. "Say, women are all alike. Why, in college I had a dozen of 'em chasing after me." We could hear Neil's voice. It was low and indistinguishable. Then Val again: "The thing to do is be smart. Forget the marriage stuff. Make 'em love you. That's where the percentage is. Now you take Simone. —" Just then Mary rattled a newspaper. I coughed. Simone got up and went quickly into the house.

I saw Neil alone two days later. Val had gone home, angry and puzzled. "Congratulations, Neil. Simone told us the good news. Bet you'll be happy together." I paused. "Don't mind saying I thought you'd lost your grip there for awhile."

He grinned, that slow, shy grin. "Confidentially, I don't mind telling you I thought we never would get a clear, quiet evening."

Lions Club Hears Wm. J. Fortune

King Lion David A. Buxbaum of the Newton Lions Club introduced William J. Fortune, Assistant Vice President of the National Shawmut Bank, at the regular weekly meeting of the Lions. Mr. Fortune, who was obtained by Lion Austin "Wally" Flint, spoke interestingly on current affairs and imparted a message of real hope, believing that our country with her great national resources, combined with the traditional American "know-how," will be ready and fully capable of successfully returning to peacetime tasks, and it will have the help of the finest men and the best educated army in the world — America's youth.

Mr. Fortune, who was a member of a good-while group, which some time ago visited our Latin American neighbors, reported that we are in a very favorable position for dealing with these fine people and that after the war he expected that business between our own country and these neighbors would be very important to both of us.

Vice President Asa Blakeslee made a favorable report to the club on behalf of a committee which investigated the possibilities of the Lions sponsoring a troop of Boy Scouts. The report was interesting and complete and it was unanimously voted that the Newton Lions Club should petition for the privilege of becoming a sponsoring unit. Considerable help was given the committee by F. Brittain Kennedy, a member of Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America.

REV. GEORGE F. FISHER ACCEPTS CALL TO HOPE CHURCH, SPRINGFIELD

Rev. and Mrs. George F. Fisher and baby son, are spending a few days with Mr. Fisher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Fisher, Newton Upper Falls. Rev. Mr. Fisher has accepted a call to Hope Church, Springfield, and assumed his duties as associate minister on April 23rd.

After graduation from American International College, he attended Andover Newton Theological School, where he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1940.

While at Andover Newton, he was young people's counselor at the Newton Centre Methodist Church, for a time, and later was assistant minister at First Congregational Church, Newton Centre.

In the summer of 1939, he toured the coast of Alaska, on the mission ship Princeton, working under appointment of the Presbyterian Board of National Missions. He had an opportunity to preach to many Indian missions on the coast sometimes by means of native interpreters.

GRANDMOTHER'S BOND WITH THE FUTURE - WAR BONDS

EMBLEM OF THE GRANDMOTHERS LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, D. C.: "Grandmother's Bond with the Future" is the slogan of the Treasury's new campaign urging grandparents to buy Bonds and stamps for their grandchildren. The official emblem is the old-fashioned sampler reproduced above.

The Grandmothers League was founded by Mrs. George C. Marshall, wife of the Army Chief-of-Staff, who bought Bonds from Secretary Morgenthau for her three grandchildren. Mrs. Marshall suggests that grandparents insure their grandchildren's future by buying Bonds or starting stamp albums for them.

Can that "younger look" be restored?

Now... in many cases, yes! For Science has made a revolutionary discovery. Doctors have found there is a "vitalizing" substance that is always necessary for a pretty young skin. Naturally as this substance decreases with age, skins start to dry and look older. But now the Endocrine Laboratories have found how to bring you a counterpoint of this substance... replacing the natural substance for your skin. It is called Activol, and brought to you only by Endocrine. Results of its use are remarkable! Skins which lacked this substance begin to look smoother, firmer, fresher again! Many skins take on new appearance of "bloom." This precious ingredient costs only 11¢ a day! So start to get its benefits! Ask at our Cosmeceutic Counter today... for ENDOCRINE!

Vary Spinach Preparation

Spinach can be included in meals frequently without becoming monotonous by varying the preparation and the serving costume. Instead of always serving just plain boiled or steamed spinach, try a cream sauce, or add a few chopped chives, onions or herbs just before sending it to the table. A bit of minced, crisp bacon or ham added in place of butter gives a good flavor, too.

Rotary Club

The guest speaker at the regular Monday meeting of the Newton Rotary Club was Mr. Daniel J. Griffin of the Boston Regional Office of the F.B.I. He was introduced by Harold Gores.

Mr. Griffin spent two years on the West Coast and was there at the time of Pearl Harbor. He, with others of the F.B.I., had been working on the Jap problem and within the first 12 hours after Pearl Harbor had rounded up practically all of the Jap aliens on the West Coast, and it was not long before 13,572 of these were in custody. Mr. Griffin told of the organizing of the F.B.I. in 1908 but it was not until 1924 when Mr. Edgar Hoover was made the head, did it really begin to go places. Mr. Hoover accepted the position only on the assurance that there would be no political interference. The requirements for joining the F.B.I. are that you have to be a lawyer or an accountant. For a while they dropped the bars and let anyone apply who could speak two foreign languages and hold a degree from a college. This has since been repealed.

Mr. Griffin told of some of the activities of the F.B.I. The entire finger printing of the USA is under the F.B.I. When the F.B.I. started there were 108,000 prints on file. Now there are 84 million of them. It takes but 3 minutes to find the record, which are all kept in Washington. The F.B.I. agents carried no firearms until 1933 when two agents, three police were killed and four wounded in the Kansas City Union Station. Since then they all carry them. In 1932 there were 604 bank robberies which netted the robbers $4,500,000. In 1942 there were 84 bank robberies, netting only $194,000. These all were due to the alert F.B.I. There have been 56 cases of kidnapping and 54 of these have been solved. The two unsolved ones are the Matson case of Tacoma, and the Levine case of New York. In 1939 the President turned over to the F.B.I. the investigation of all cases of sabotage and espionage in the USA. Mr. Griffin said there has not been one case of foreign sabotage — but there have been plenty of domestic ones, and these many who he called "Horse-play" the stoppage of work in defense plants due mostly to playing jokes on one another—but stopping work just the same. But there were over 500 real cases and all were convicted. There were 256,000 cases of draft dodgers and over 100,000 have been located and convicted.

He told of the fakers in uniform and how you can tell them by their loud boastings and what heroes they have been. The F.B.I. finally gets them.

There are 12,000 employees in the F.B.I., including clerical help, etc. There are 4700 special agents. The F.B.I. National Police Academy at Washington trained police from all over the country. Two from each town or city can attend. It is a free course of 14 weeks and they have to study from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Uncle Sam pays the bill which amounts to about $5000 for each man.

This was one of the most interesting talks we have had in a long time and we hope Mr. Griffin will be with us soon again.

NEWTON DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

Miss Elizabeth Porter, General Supervisor of the Newton District Nursing Association, will represent that body at the conference of the National Organization of Public Health Nursing, to be held in Buffalo, New York. She will report to the Board of Directors at their next meeting, on the interesting developments in that field of nursing.

At the April meeting of the Association, held in the old Claffin School, Mrs. Phil Warren, chairman of the Nursing Committee, gave an outline of a typical day in the life of a District Nurse. She also made a plea for donations of old linen and sheeting.

Miss Nelson reported that nearly 2,000 visits were made by the nurses during the month of March to 689 patients. This is a remarkable record, considering the reduced staff. It was interesting to learn that 29 new babies have been added to the Well-Baby Conferences in March.

A most enlightening report of progress to date on the Newton Citizen's Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans was presented by the chairman, Mr. Charles B. Floyd. He explained the purpose and aims of the committee and gave the directors interesting facts regarding the responses to questionnaires sent out to every service man and woman from Newton.

The office of the committee is located at A.R.P. headquarters in Newtonville. The Newton District Nursing Association has already informed this organization that their services are available to the returning veterans and to his family.

Soap Waste

In the bathroom, and sometimes in the kitchen, soap wasted by being left in a wet soap dish. A perforated soap dish, or drying out the dish, prevents waste. In the bathroom, waste occurs also if the soap is allowed to soak unnecessarily in the tub or basin while bathing or washing is in progress. Care in removing soap from the basin or tub will take care of unnecessary melting.

Large Attendance At "Y" Dinner

Two hundred and fifty representative Newton citizens filled the Y. M. C. A. auditorium for their annual dinner and meeting on Monday evening. Dr. Tracy Strong, General Secretary of the World's Alliance of the Y. M. C. A., and head of the Prisoners of War work for the Y. M. C. A., was the speaker. In addition to the Y.
M. C. A. members and friends, a large group of Community Chest workers, members of the school department, and executives from other Newton agencies were present at the meeting. The Community Chest delegation was headed by Past President Neil Leonard and William B. Plumer, President of the Newton Community Council.

Special recognition was given to the "old-timers" of the Newton
Y. M. C. A., as founders of the organization were honored. Edward L. Bacon, who was present at the organization meeting of the Newton Y. M. C. A. in 1877, was also present at the dinner.
Other men who have been active in the "Y" throughout the years were there. This delegation was headed by former Mayor Edwin O. Chilcote, President of the former General Secretary Harry
W. Bascom, invited this group.

The annual report of the association was printed and available to all who attended. In addition to a balanced budget for 1943, the report showed that there were 2731 different members active in 126 groups, clubs and teams. The report also indicated that there were 232 different campers at Camp Frank A. Day last season.

In his talk Dr. Strong pointed out that the best information from "Inside Europe" indicated that people of the occupied nations look forward with fear toward postwar days. They anticipate a long period of military occupation until such time as they may be able to arrange affairs in such a way
as to be able to conduct an ordinary government.

President Frederick Sayford
Bacon presided at the meeting and Rev. Randolph S. Merrill offered the invocation. Other head table guests included the wives of these men, General Secretary and Mrs.
Clarence R. Messer, Past President Frank A. Day, Jr., State Secretary Roy E. Coombs, and Lieut. Fred Conley. During the dinner Lieut. Conley, a former Newton "Y" boy, who has had an enviable record in both the Canadian and American Air Force, was introduced. He was given a standing ovation.

Tells of Meeting Charles E. Bacon

Mr. Austin M. Beattie, professional singer and vocal teacher,
and a long-time friend of the late Charles E. Bacon and the Bacon family, tells of his first meeting with Charles Bacon, when he was playing for the Newton Y. M. C.
A., at that time located on Washington st., Newton.

Charles Bacon, on hearing him sing, invited him to his home to sing for his father and mother, his father being very fond of the standard "Oratorios." In the music room of their home was a grand piano and a two-manual organ.
Mr. Beattie sang for them such songs as "Be Thou Faithful unto Death" from St. Paul, "If with All Your Hearts" from Elijah and
"The Holy City" by Adams, which at that time was becoming very popular. After hearing them sung with the piano the elder Mr. Bacon would ask to have them sung with the organ.

For two years before he went on the road Mr. Beattie would go to the Bacon home once a week and go over those songs. Later on re-firing from the stage he opened a studio in Boston, where for four years Mr. Charles Bacon never missed a Saturday as his accompanist. He told Mr. Beattie he enjoyed it more than anything in his life. All of Mr. Beattie's pupils were very fond of Mr. Bacon.
Mr. Beattie still visits once a week with Mr. Bacon's brother, Mr. Edward Bacon, and at this time of the year and during the summer finds enjoyment in helping him with his garden.

"Pot likker" is the juice of ham
or fatback cooked with turnip, pork or collard greens. The late Gov.

that corn pone (a cross between hot cake and corn bread) should be dunked in pot likker, but Georgian issued an indignant denial, contending that the pone should be "crumbled" into the pot likker.

Blood Bank Day June 5

Monday, June 5, has been chosen as Newton Day at the Blood Collection Center, it is announced by Mrs. C. Terry Collins, chairman of that committee for the Newton Red Cross. "We hope to fill 260 appointments on that day," said Mrs. Collins, "and are urging Newton donors to sign up as quickly as possible. With 'D' day so close at hand, the need for blood plasma is becoming more and more urgent, and I know that as always Newton will do more than her share to speed the safe return of our boys in the armed forces." Newton Motor Corps will conduct an hourly transportation service to and from the Boston Blood Center on Newton day, and appointments can be made by telephoning Lasell 6000.

Mrs. Collins also said that she has received word of the first Newton service man to become a member of the "Gallon Club." He is Private Eugene T. Smith, now stationed at the Aberdeen Proving Ground in Maryland, who has just given his eighth donation of blood for plasma. "When we see how the fighting men feel about blood plasma, how can any of us hesitate to give up one hour of our time to save a life?"

Mrs. Edward R. Aldrich of 36 Taft avenue is visiting in Provincetown at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albion S. Kelley.

Newton's Health Crusade Wins Highest U. S. Award

In Newton, if you operate an unclean restaurant or lunch counter, everybody knows it. The health department sees to that.

Newton's intensive campaign against the spread of disease, which is highlighted several times each year by distribution to residents of lists rating the cleanliness of all eating establishments, is only one of the many reasons why the city's health department was listed this year, for the sixth time, on an honor roll selected by the United States Chamber of Commerce and the American Public Health Association. No other Massachusetts community—and only three others in all New England—received similar honors.

The presence of its name on this national honor roll does not mean that Newton residents necessarily are the healthiest in the state. But it does mean, according to Dr. Ernest M. Morris, Newton health director, that the city is furnishing excellent health service to its citizens.

In addition to its restaurant survey, these are some of the things of which the Newton health department is proud:

A milk list, which rates as "satisfactory" or "unsatisfactory" all milk sold in the city, and is distributed in a pamphlet with the restaurant report.

A lecture course for food handlers, established this year and attended, to date, by 80 restaurant employees, from managers to soda jerkers.

A voluntary diphtheria-immunization program so successful that today 94 per cent of Newton's children are immunized—without compensation—before they reach the first grade.

New city health ordinances—put into effect last October— which forbid any employee of an eating establishment or bakery to remain at work if he has a cold, sore throat, infected cut, diarrhea or communicable disease.

RESULTS GOOD

The lists, rating restaurants and milk, were first distributed in October, 1941, in a pamphlet published by the health department, entitled "Your Health." Eating establishments were notified nearly a year in advance of that date that such a survey would be made, based on the average bacterial count found on drinking glasses.

A count under 100 was regarded as good; 101 to 500 fair, and more than 500 unsatisfactory.

In that first report, 30 per cent of the restaurants, inns, drug stores and soda fountains inspected were found to be unsatisfactory.

In the most recent report, published last October, only seven out of 110, or 6.3 per cent were unsatisfactory. In two years, six eating establishments had moved from unsatisfactory to good, 14 had changed from unsatisfactory to fair, and 11 changed from fair to good.

Similarly, milk sold in Newton has shown an improvement. In 1941, 19 brands were rated either unsatisfactory or fair. Today, with milk now designated merely satisfactory or unsatisfactory, only seven kinds are rated unsatisfactory.

"Publishing the milk list has done more for Newton's milk supply than any other thing," Dr. Morris declared.

The "Youth Health" pamphlet as a whole has been commended by the American Public Health Journal as "One of the best bulletins to reach our desk," and recently pamphlets published in California and Connecticut have been patterned after it. It is mailed three or four times a year to about 6000 Newton homes, selected as a typical cross-section, and Dr. Morris hopes that its circulation eventually can be increased to include every family in the city.

Just as the restaurant survey is published to combat the spreading of disease in public eating places, the health department also works directly with the food handlers, cooks, waitresses, even dish washers, to prevent their carrying and spreading germs. The course of four lectures, started last winter, includes instruction in germs, poisons and toxins; the cleaning of eating and drinking utensils; the care of food and the prevention of decay and personal hygiene. Dr. Morris gives the first lecture. The other three are given by A. A. Robertson, chief sanitary inspector of the department.

Dr. Morris, who has headed the Newton health department since 1940, previously was affiliated with the Fall River health department, and later with the State Department of Public Health—Frances Morton, Boston Herald.

To Hold Mothers Night On May 14

Newton Lodge of Elks will present a program in observance of Mother's Day on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in Elks Hall, Newton. There will be music by the Kovitz Trio and Edgar Randle, tenor soloist, will sing.

All of us have known the value of a mother's love from the moment she discovered that God in his infinite wisdom had chosen her to be the medium of the miracle of birth and she had devoted her entire existence to our care.

Many a mother has seen her son called to the fields of battle and has bidden him goodbye with dry eyes though her heart was filled with tears. Her spirit will keep watch over him wherever he may be as she prays for his safe return.

Many of us have gone through the harrowing experience of a final earthly parting as a mother's hands were folded in repose, and in her memory wear a white flower on Mother's Day.

Those who possess the priceless privilege of wearing a red flower in honor of a mother who is still with them will on this day resolve to do all possible to make her remaining days comfortable and happy.

It is indeed fitting that Mother's Day should be observed at this time in the beautiful month of May when Nature casts off the chill and gloom of winter to give birth to the glory of spring flowers and the songs of birds.

The public is invited to attend this observance of Mother's Day at Elks Hall and pay tribute to the truest friend and pal one ever had.

Lt. Col. Barba In Many Interesting War Experiences

The many friends of Lt.-Col. William H. Barba, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Barba of 11 Willard Street, Newton, will be interested in the following about his recent action in the war zone.

Col. Barba graduated from Newton High in 1931, from Norwich University in 1936, was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Marines and was in service at various locations up to the time of Pearl Harbor.

Col. Barba landed on New Britain two months ago and was one of the officers responsible for the speed with which Marines have pushed along the North Coast, going more than 50 miles in three days arriving at Rein Bay, 64 miles from Cape Gloucester, walking practically the whole distance.

As commanding officer of a strong advance unit he received notice of his promotion from Major to Lt. Colonel while on this march. His patrols started out first, moving into territory where no white man had set foot in 12 years. A few minutes later the Colonel would take off, catching up with the first men in the patrol.

One incident illustrates his attitude on such expeditions. A wide river blocked the patrol. Tides made swimming difficult and wading impossible. The patrol was taken through two miles of deep swamp to a ford; another two mile tramp brought the patrol back to the beach just 150 feet from where it had turned off, but across the river.

On the return trip the idea of four miles through that swamp was settled by Col. Barba. He took off his clothes and led the way into the ocean trying to get across the river by wading far into the coral streaked surf. He went in over his head! He then helped prepare a make-shift raft for equipment, not for men. Tedious trips were made across the river pushing and pulling the raft. The Colonel made five of these excursions before the patrol had re-crossed the river. That day his unit moved into Iloilo planations, one of the largest coconut groves in that part of the Pacific.

Col. Barba travelled by foot through swamp and jungle more than 20 miles examining captured material and inspecting enemy defense areas. He also served at Guadalcanal and his machine gun company was the first to land there.

Lt.-Col. Barba has three brothers in the service; Francis with the Ground Air Force in England; Robert, Coxswain in the Coast Guard; and Jack with the Ordnance Dept., also in England.

Ninety-Sixth Annual Meeting Is Held

The ninety-sixth annual meeting of the First Unitarian Society in Newton was held at the Unitarian church in West Newton on Monday evening (May 8) at which time supper was served and a British war film shown.

At the business meeting the following officers were elected: Moderator, William B. Baker; clerk, Robert Coxswain in the Coast Guard; and Jack with the Ordnance Dept., also in England.

The nominating committee consisted of Miss Faith Stanton, Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Betty Tobey, chairman.

A large number of members registered to attend the annual Unitarian state conference which will be held at the New Ocean House in Swampscott on June 3. All registrations must be made by May 27.

The new officers will meet within a short time to appoint committee chairmen, and the first meeting of the new season will be held on the first Sunday in October. The War Work Committee will remain active throughout the summer.

Elected President Of Building Ass'n

At the annual meeting of the Old Fellows Building Association of West Newton, Harold H. Temperley was elected president. He succeeds William T. Campbell, elected president emeritus, who is ill at the Newton Hospital.

Other officers elected for the coming year are Mrs. Harriet Woolway, vice-president; Miss Marjorie P. Perkins, clerk; Ralph L. Fox, treasurer; Directors, Harold H. Temperley, Mrs. Woolway, John P. Marshall, Mrs. Mary Hemen, Alva Merriam, Ernest F. Dow and Mrs. Helen Merriam.

Representatives of Newton and Home Lodges, Garden City Encampment and the Sumner P. Lawrence and Tennyson Rebekah Lodges were present at the meeting.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held on June 10.

Robertson Named Chairman of Municipal Division

Announcement Made By Newton Community Chest

MRS. THERON B. WALKER
Pres. Newton Hospital Aid Assoc.

Sixth Annual Dessert Bridge Held Tuesday

The spacious living room and lounges of the nurses' home of the Newton Hospital were gay with spring flowers Tuesday afternoon, May 9, for the sixth annual dessert bridge and fashion show sponsored by the aid association, of which Mrs. Theron B. Walker is president.

150 tables were placed through the rooms, and cakes and coffee served the 600 and more guests by Mrs. Harold Keller, West Newton, chairman of food, assisted by Mrs. Benjamin W. Pepper, Auburndale, and her committee of waitresses, a group serving the hospital in other volunteer work: Mrs. Harold Benkopf, Auburndale; Mrs. Fred Dodge, Mrs. Henry S. Kimball, Mrs. R. W. Leach and Mrs. Stanley Livingston, all of Newtonville; Miss Mary McKenna and Mrs. Chester Scott, West Newton; Mrs. Winsor Frederick, Weston; Mrs. Charles Eaton and Mrs. Alexander McW. Wolfe, Wellesley; Mrs. Peter J. Rempe, Wellesley Hills; Red Cross aides; Mrs. Clarence L. Moulton, Newtonville, dietitian aide, and Mrs. Edward S. English, Wellesley, gray lady. Nuts and punch were sold through the afternoon by Mrs. Robert P. Bolster of Newton Lower Falls and a group from Lasell Junior College: Miss Betty Jane Dunkle, Miss Phyllis Heffer, Miss Marjorie A. Petersen, Miss Virginia Phillips and Miss Nancy Overton. Gardenias, from a flower basket on the arm of Mrs. Hubert Carter, chairman, were given to each table for the winning player. The fashion show, chairmanned by Mrs. Earl P. Stevenson of Newton, with its attractive models and colorful costumes added an interesting inclusion.

Accepting his appointment as Chairman for the Division for another year, Mr. Robertson stated, "The Municipal Department did an outstanding job in the last Newton Community Chest and War Fund Campaign, not only as

A. D. Robertson will be chairman of the Municipal Division in the 1945 United War Fund Campaign in Newton, it is announced today by the Newton Community Chest office. Mr. Robertson is Chief Sanitary Officer of the Newton Health Department and has been an employee of the city for the past eight years.

Robby, as he is familiarly known at City Hall and throughout Newton, served as Municipal Chairman in the 1944 Campaign and in 1943 was Assistant Chairman. He established outstanding records in both Campaigns; last year in the whole division and the year before at City Hall which was his particular section.

The city employees have, from the formation of the Chest, been among its most loyal supporters and last year exceeded their goal by subscribing to the Fund more than $10,000. The city section has 31 teams and city departments 18, which make the division one of the largest in worker personnel because there are 49 separate units to be organized each year.

The school teachers have made an enviable record over the years and last year had a double 100% of their goal attained and 100% of all teachers subscribing. Other municipal departments have duplicated this record and contributions were received from a total of 1936 employees.

Considerable credit for the fine showing of the Municipal Division goes to Mayor Goddard and to Dr. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, who unqualifyingly endorse the Chest movement, as well as to Harold Gores, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, who has been closely identified with the School Division for many years; to Malcolm Warren, of Duxbury, Mrs. Green's son, Cal Merrill M. Green is the fiancé of Miss Marjorie Ruth MacMullen. Miss MacMullen is doing graduate work at Columbia University and is a Psychological Intern at the New York Psychiatric Institute.

workers but as contributors, and I feel certain that they will do just as well, if not better, this year."

Mr. Robertson has reason to be proud of the 1944 results of his Division. School teachers averaged $10.00 per subscriber, the School Division including janitors and cafeteria workers averaged $8.90 per employee, while the City Hall and other City employees averaged $6.80 per contributor.

Mrs. Stanley O. MacMullen gave a tea at her home 25 Brackett Road, Newton on Saturday, April 29th for Mrs. Merrill H. Green of Duxbury. Mrs. Green's son, Cal Merrill M. Green is the fiancé of Miss Marjorie Ruth MacMullen. Miss MacMullen is doing graduate work at Columbia University and is a Psychological Intern at the New York Psychiatric Institute.

MOTHERS' DAY

Countless words of praise have been written about Mother through the years. Once in his career every poet eulogizes her; biographers tell of mother's influence on famous sons and daughters and long before President Wilson proclaimed the first national observance of Mother's Day in 1914, Lincoln said, "All that I am I owe to my angel mother."

Even in a world at war, there must be expression of the better things of life and what better thing is there than gratitude for the care, sacrifice and faith of our mothers. As the day approaches which has been dedicated to mother love let every worthy son and daughter, by word, letter, card or gift, acknowledge his or her debt to mother. Mother's Day, this year, will dawn upon a world of mothers with aching or apprehensive hearts. All that mother love has planned and hoped for, all the ideals with which good mothers have imbued their children seem to be shattering in the violence of warring nations. The hope of the world still rests in its mothers and in those early lessons of truth, kindness and faith learned at mother's knee. When mothers everywhere realize their power and accept the responsibility there will be less occasion for wars.

At the recent directors' meeting of the Auburndale Co-operative Bank on May 3, Wickliffe J. Spaulding was elected president of the bank and Charles B. Floyd was elected vice-president. Mr. Spaulding, a prominent lawyer, is a member of the board of Spaulding, Shaw & Harris. He makes his home at 429 Wolcott street, Auburndale. He was one of the original organizers of the bank in 1910, and has been vice-president since that time. Mr. Floyd, who also makes his home on Wolcott street, at number 454, has been a director of the bank since 1920. He has been prominent in public service to Newton as an alderman, president of the board, a director of the Newton Hospital, active in Red Cross and chairman of the 1944 Community Chest campaign. He has recently been elected chairman of the Citizens' Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans.

Newton High School

Just before vacation Mr. Green called a special assembly of senior boys. The purpose was to find out how many of them between the ages of 17 years and 17 and nine months on July 1, 1944, would like to take an A-12 Exam in May, if one is offered; as only eight signified that they wished to take it, none will probably be held. There are several reasons why so few responded; over 135 boys took the previous examinations, 75 to 80 in the V-12 and 55-60 the A-12; many are in the V-5 program, and some are in the Army Air Corps; some have enlisted and are waiting for graduation before going; and some have already left school.

Lieutenant Leo Barry, former English teacher of 131, is now stationed at Harvard, studying communications. Miss Madeline Brackett of the Waves, stationed in Corpus Christi, Texas, has recently been promoted to Lieutenant (j. g.).

Captain Martin J. Peterson, Jr., N. H. S., '35, wounded in the battle for Europe, has just returned home. Sent overseas in February, '43, after intensive tank training at Fort Knox, he was on guard duty at the Moroccan border for six months before participating in the Italian campaign.

Newton Graphic, May 10, 1889

The Army & Navy Journal mentions the Clafin Guards as one of the excellent companies at the Centennial parade in New York. Praise from this journal means a good deal.

The Newton Street Railway Company has appeared before the railroad commissioners through John C. Lane, treasurer, clerk and counsel of the company, and asked to have the capital increased from $50,000 to $100,000. There was no opposition so that the petition will be granted.

The assessors have been making their annual rounds this week, and find that the new law in regard to the assessment of women adds greatly to their labors. Although the new law has been published in all the papers, the assessors say that not one woman in ten knows anything about it, and the great majority do not care to vote.

The 70th anniversary of the Congregational Sunday School will be observed a week from next Sunday, (West Newton). The pastor will give an historical sermon in the morning, and the anniversary exercises will take place in the evening.

50 Years Ago

Newton Graphic, May 11, 1894
Mowry & Temple have just fixed up the main chandelier in Armory Hall, so that the gas can be lighted automatically.

There are 14 transfers of real estate in Newton recorded in the Banker & Tradesman, this week, and about as many mortgages, so that the real estate business in Newton is not in such a bad state, in spite of the hard times.

Some gilt-edged butter in 5-pound boxes from Vermont at $1.25 per box, is a feature at Wellington House market, Newton.

The assessors have begun their annual inquisitorial visits upon the citizens, who have property that can be taxed, and they expect to make the usual showing of an increase in the valuation of Newton, and patriotic citizens are expected, of course, to assist them in their efforts.

The Newton Club grounds are beginning to take on an attractive summer dress. A New York clubman was a recent visitor here said that the clubhouse is, undoubtedly, one of the finest to be found anywhere outside of the big cities and that its situation could hardly be excelled. Such enthusiastic commendation is quite agreeable, to say the least.

Newton Kiwanis Club News

The Newton Kiwanis Club register a 95 per cent. attendance for the month of April, as reported by Secretary Ed Durocher. Walter
Hood, club president, announced
a joint supper meeting to be held on June 5 in connection with the commemoration of the Y.M.C.A.
Centennial. Rotary, Lions and the Chamber of Commerce will join the Kiwanis in this celebration.

Lee Noel reported on club finances and particularly on the "What's Cookin' in Newton" fund. Bill
Priestman of the Moyer Chevrolet Company was inducted into membership by Ben Louis.

The speaker of the day was Jack
O'Donnell of the O'Donnell-Usen Company. He was introduced by Bill Sullivan and brought some very interesting colored motion pictures about the fish industry.
The picture depicted the work in connection with supplying Boston and New England with fish, all the way from the preparation for the voyage to sea to the packing of the fish upon the completion of the trip. Various pieces of equipment used in the fish industry were shown, including the various kinds of nets and the time-keeping devices which indicate how long the net has been down and when it is time to haul it in. The Fathometer also shows the amount of water directly underneath the fishing vessel. Some very beautiful shots were taken at sea and there were scenes of large nets full of fish being pulled into the boat.

Sorting, cleaning and packing in ice were all shown as part of the process. Life aboard a fishing trawler was described as were some of the odd species of fish sometimes taken in the nets. The necessity for plenty of good food for fishermen at sea was stressed in order that bodily warmth be maintained, especially in winter. The clothing worn by fishermen was described.

Mr. O'Donnell said that sometimes a trawler will bring in as many as 35,000 pounds of fish in one trip, and he also said that the fish industry is worth $200,000,000
to New England. The distribution of fish through the exchange at the Boston fish pier enables the consumer to secure the fish soon
after it is brought into the fish pier. Mr. O'Donnell told about the division of profits, saying that the owner usually receives one-half the value of the catch, and the crew the other half.

His presentation was particularly interesting, as it dealt with an industry so well known to New England and so vital to the commercial life of Boston.

Present Law Books To Cornell

The gift of a set of "Lectures on Law" bound in solid leather, and comprising 476 pages of notes in the handwriting of his grandfather, Samuel Church, has been presented to the Cornell Law School by Albert Church Blunt, Jr. of 85 Prince Street, West Newton.

These lectures are all in the handwriting of Mr. Church which is as legible as the ink is indelible and the paper imperishable. The notes were taken down of lectures delivered in 1806 by Tapping Reeve, proprietor of a famous school at Litchfield, Conn. one of the pioneers among law schools.

After graduating from Yale in 1803 Mr. Church went to study with Reeve in 1806 and that same year was admitted to the bar. By 1820 was a Probate Judge in the past and the Fire Department has devoted much time to the task of checking the fire.

The petition has been referred to the claims and rules committee of the Board of Aldermen for consideration and the committee will make its recommendation to the board.

Comes 12,000 Miles To Learn Mother Had Died 3 Hours Before

Returning to the United States because of illness after serving with the Army for two years, the last six months of which he was in Australia, 2nd Lt. Emery B. Stratton arrived at his home, 1082 Centre St., Newton Centre, only a few hours after his mother, Mrs. Edward B. Stratton, had passed away. Lt. Stratton had been informed of his mother's illness but later heard that she had rallied and he had hoped to complete his 12,000 mile journey in time to see her alive.

Mrs. Stratton was the former Bertha Smith of Boston. Her husband, Edward B. Stratton, is an architect with an office at 113 State Street, Boston.

Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, 2nd Lt. Emery B. Stratton, 1st Lt. Charles W. Stratton serving at Bougainville and E. Bowman Stratton of Washington, D. C. and a daughter, Mrs. Annie Olcott of Newton Highlands.

Funeral services were held on Thursday in Trinity Episcopal Church, Newton Centre.

Word was recently received that Lt. Charles Stratton who has been overseas for 28 months had been wounded in action. He is 27 years of age and has served in New Caledonia, the Fiji Islands and Guadalcanal and has been cited for gallantry in action.

The service men are chosen by a committee of workers, and photographs of them are placed in large colored poster forms displayed prominently where the workers can see them. The men honored are relatives or friends of the workers in that particular department.

Each man receives a personal letter from the department foreman. Alice Deene, Social Service Representative and collaborator on the original plan, supervises the sending of the letters. The plan is received with enthusiasm by the Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Coast Guardsmen who have written to thank Raytheon for their day and the notes are posted in the departments where all may read them.

The plan, originated by Thomas Feeley, department head in the Newton plant, has already been adopted at the Raytheon Machine and Watertown Plants, and other divisions are planning to follow suit.

Encouraging results are shown in increased production — more careful work — less absenteeism.

First Aid Class To Be Formed For Young Men

A First Aid Class is being planned for young men in Newton. A few additional applicants are needed before the class can be started, and any young man wishing to get First Aid training may enroll by telephoning Lasell 6000.

Can that "younger look" be restored?

Now...in many cases, yes! For Science has made a revolutionary discovery. Doctors have found there is a "vitalizing" substance that is always necessary for a pretty young skin. Naturally as this substance decreases with age, skins start to dry and look older. But now the ENDOCREME laboratories have found how to bring you a counteragent of this substance...replacing the natural substance for your skin. It is called ACTIVOL and brought to you only by Endocrine. Results of its use are remarkable! Skins which lacked this substance begin to look smoother, firmer, fresher again! Many skins take on new appearance of "bloom." This precious ingredient costs only 11 1/2¢ a day! So start to get its benefits! Ask at our Cosmetic Counter...today...for ENDOCREME! 30 days supply $3.50 plus tax knows all about life in Germany and in the German army in particular. "It's no goot!" he declared vehemently. His people, "the poor Chermans," would quit tomorrow, he was sure, if only they could have their way.

"There's nothing you can do though," he finished, shaking his head sadly. "You do what you're told over there—You always did." Changes... The Taylor Trust, former owners of nearly all Newton Corner's stores and apartment buildings, sold their holdings to the H. N. Gorin and Leeder Company of Brookline, recently, and plans are already underway to modernize the old Corner. It is proposed that one or more buildings will be leveled, so to widen the Square and construct a new through highway. Then, it is also planned to raze the block of stores at Washington street and Charlesbank road and erect one of those super duper gasoline filling stations there.

All of the above will be done after the war, of course, although that new wing they've been planning to add to the laughing academy up there in Westboro, for the gentry who gamble the family bankroll on the speed of a horse, may be put in as an emergency measure before the war is over—the boys have been doing that badly heretofore.

Current Events, etc. . . . The lights are on again in the Corner and along Washington street. Workmen began taking off the shields Monday and what a difference! It's like old times again and spirits are high. Locals are taking the sudden change from dimouts to dazzlers as a good omen. . . . Staff Sgt. Kenneth S. Irving who served with the bomber command in the Marshalls, is now out there punching in the Gilberts. Sergeant Irving's father is a past commander of the Newton American Legion Post. . . . Fred Gasavant is serving at Camp Ord, California. . . . Sergeant Charles E. Walker, formerly of Omar terrace, Newtonville, is finishing his training at Camp Macdonough, and expects to be on his way soon. He's a waist gunner on one of those crack B 17s. The sergeant's father, Charles Sr., operates a chicken ranch on the old homestead. . . . Letters were received, recently, from Sergeant Tom Ganley, in England with the military police. A newly wed, Tom writes that he misses his new Mrs. . . . George Benham, formerly of the Waldorf and now in Bridgeport, Conn., visited cronies here, last week, leaving by next of train money by reason of holding full houses often than anyone else.

Chamber Tells Of Rules For Memorial Day

The Newton Chamber of Commerce has informed its members in a current bulletin that in this state Memorial Day, May 30, is subject to Sunday laws between 7 a. m. and 1 p. m. and that during those hours no place of business may be open except florists who are exempt under the law and those establishments having Sunday licenses.

The bulletin, issued by Secretary Rupert C. Thompson, also stated "Under Executive order issued Oct. 1, 1942, no premium, wages or extra compensation shall be paid for work on customary holidays except New Year's Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and either Memorial Day or one other such holiday you may select."

YMCA To Assist Veterans

The setting up of a committee which will include Prof. Kirley, ing and Prof. Chester M. Alter, for the purpose of assisting in readjustment of returning servicemen through the YMCA was announced by General Secretary Clarence R. Mease at the annual meeting of the Newton YMCA attended by 250 persons.

Three new directors were elected and the board re-elected Frederick Sayford Bacon as president. The meeting, which was the largest in the history of the "Y," honored the founders and old time members, nearly 50 of whom were present. Dr. Tracy Strong, general secretary of the World's Committee of the YMCA War Prisoners Activities, gave a talk on "Inside Europe." Rev. Randolph S. Merrill, minister of the Central Congregational Church, offered the invocation.

have all gone over the top. Your staff is typical of the way folks are "going to bat" for you, for in spite of the illness of two members, (both of them overworked) two on jury duty, one inducted in the army, and two doing "extra" war work at night, your paper still goes out on time. All your staff are buying bonds and one member belongs to the "gallon club" having donated nine pints of blood to the Red Cross.

Police Investigate Grave Desecration

Desecration of graves in Evergreen Cemetery on Winchester Street, near Cook street, Newton Highlands, where he buried some of the city's early settlers, was reported to the Newton police.

It was discovered that 14 headstones had been overturned and damaged and the grounds were trampled.

The cemetery is owned by the city and maintained by the Forestry Division of the Street Department. Chief Michael T. Hughes, after learning of the vandalism, had a number of the police force to endeavor to apprehend the culprits and prosecute them.

The cost of building projects undertaken in Newton this year up to May 1 was approximately half of that of the first four months of last year, according to the monthly report of the Public Buildings Department.

A total of 63 permits were issued this year for projects aggregating $27,422 in cost, compared with 101 permits and a total cost of $53,560 in the corresponding period last year. The number of permits issued in the first four months of 1942 was 156 and the total cost was $293,480.

A Mothers' Day Tribute

Upon this your own special day, I think of the things you were oft wont to say.

"Be good, and be clean, but be gracious too. Then all the nice things will come back to you."

Sometimes I wonder, yes I may have a doubt, Sittin' here trying to fathom things out.

The world seems so crazy, life valued so small, My heart just stops beatin', as I look at it all.

I wish I were with you, to just see you smile, Then doubts would vanish, and fightin' worth while.

I'll keep my chin up Mother, till this job is done, Then home in a hurry—True love, —From your son, Senar Senarian

Church Appeals For Blood Donors

The following notice appeared in the May issue of the Centenary Methodist Church of Auburndale, Stephen J. Callender, Minister.

"ARE YOU GAME? Mr. Wesley H. McIntire has suggested that there are doubtless eighty-two persons in our parish—one for each letter in the word of Honor—who will gladly be blood donors, thereby sharing their lives with the brave men and women, who risk their all for us.

The Red Cross will take care of our transportation to a blood bank in Boston. It will be a great event—one of us for each person on our Roll of Honor! Are you game! Phone Mr. McIntire."

Permission To Take Peat Off Land Is Asked

A petition for a permit to remove peat from land owned by him on Pico road, Newton Centre, has been filed at City Hall by Merrill C. Nutting.

The petitioner has filed a plan of the project at the office of the city engineer.

The peat bog in that section has been the scene of numerous fires in the past and the Fire Department has devoted much time to the task of checking the fire.

Extinguish Fire Behind Station

The firemen of Ladder 2, Newton Highlands, didn't have to travel far this noon to extinguish a brush fire. The scene of the blaze was on Boylston street, behind the fire station.

The call was received at 12:22 p. m. because one of the proximity of the scene of the fire to the station, the blaze didn't get a chance to make much headway before it was extinguished.

Performance Of Magic To Aid Scouts

An evening of "Magic extraordinary" will be presented at the Newton High School on Friday evening, May 5, at 7:45 p. m. by seven members of the Society of American Magicians under the direction of Roger Wheeler. The program is for the benefit of the Boy Scouts and Cubs of Newtonville.

It is the method by which the Newtonville Group of Scouts annually raises money for their Scout activities. Much of it is used to send Scouts camping week-ends at the Nobscot Reservation.

A petition for a permit to establish a convalescent home at 44 Billings park, Newton, has been filed at City Hall by Marion E. Howe.

The petitioner specified that not more than ten persons were to be kept at the home at one time.

The permit is necessary because the property is located in a Single Residence "B" District. The claims and rules committee of the Board of Aldermen will hold a hearing on the petition and will present a report to the board before action is taken.

A Prayer

By
REV. W. HENRY SHILLINGTON
First Methodist Church of Newton
Newton Upper Falls

Eternal God our Father, who ruleth over men and nations, pour out thy blessing upon the President of the United States and those associated with him who guide the destiny of this hour.

Hear our prayer for all those serving their country wherever they may be and assure them of thy presence. Be with those at home and undergird them with faith and courage.

Grant unto us more of the mind and spirit of Jesus Christ that through international collaboration we may crusade for a new world order based upon justice and brotherhood.

Uphold thy church around the world and draw us nearer to Thee. Be with all those everywhere who are working for the coming of thy kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pays Further Tribute To Late Cardinal

A further tribute to the memory of Cardinal O'Connell was paid last Sunday by Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D. D., auxiliary bishop and interim administrator of the Boston Archdiocese, at the 8:30 mass at Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre.

"He was the only Cardinal Archbishop that we ever knew," Bishop Cushing said, "and he was an institution. Many never saw him, but they saw in his passing a great man."

Request Names Of Service Nurses

Three Newton war committees today joined in an appeal for names of nurses of the city who are in military service.

The appeal follows: The Newton Committee on Nursing for War Services, the Citizens' Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans and the City Hall Honor Roll are anxious to get a complete listing of these women.

Newton Merry

Spring came in on a warm breeze this year and from all appearances, it's going to stay with us. Our Garden City is really up morning. The trees, flowers and shrubs are blooming all over the place, and the victory gardeners are applying themselves to their respective garden plots with an abundance of zeal and gusto.

During the twilight hours, they're really bearing down hard, although the time won't chaff of some are threatening to come apart in their own particular process of breaking down.

Local housewives are rejoicing, too, over the practical ending of minute rationing. Nobody ever went hungry because of it, but that point business had them almost standing on their heads, at times. The OPA, in its wisdom, waved the wand, however, so that now the girls are relieved of one headache, anyway.

Gas Rationing . . . Gasoline and tire rationing is still in, but there are plenty of automobiles on the highways. One million and a half of them were junked in this country last year, with an estimated two million due to go the same way in 1944. They aren't going to last too long at that rate, regardless. . . .

All of which will result in an ever increasing load for the trains and trolleys—and they've been carrying a load since 1941. A five minute delay, nowadays, means a pile-up all along the line. Some of the Boston El trolleys operating on the Newton-Watertown line, are more than twenty five years old and they are on the go pretty much all the time these days.

The wheels seldom cease turning. Shipments of new streamlined cars are being put into operation regularly and it begins to appear that they will need more of them.

Draft . . . In the near future some twenty odd workers at the nearby Watertown arsenal will be drafted and will then be assigned right back to their old jobs there, as soldiers, at Army pay. It seems a good scheme and practical, as well. . . .

There's another proposal up now, to organize to make all maximums between the ages of 18 and 45, not engaged in essential jobs, liable to induction into the Army and Navy service units. They would be put in work supporting them in the armed services. Do What You're Told . . .

A little German, a veteran of the Kaiser's 1914-18 army of would-be conquerors, bemoaned Hitler's insanity for the benefit of the Owls the other night.

"Hitler's a crazy man," he muttered in his typical guttural accent. "My relatives over there, before the war, thought he was great because he promised they'd never have to fight again. Now look at them!"

POLITICS

WITH COLOR

Republican Nominees

The difficulties confronting magazine publishers are illustrated by the current issue of American magazine, which contains a feature article by Beverly Smith, entitled "Favorites in the G.O.P. Sweepstakes." Six potential candidates are covered, as follows: Dewey, Stassen, Taft, and Warren. It so happens that Gen. MacArthur's formal withdrawal from the race was announced in the newspapers before I was able to pick up a copy of the American. This article, incidentally, is well worth reading, as it gives an excellent summary of the background and the public careers of all six men. Gov. Dewey of New York, as might be expected, is referred to as a strong favorite for the G.O.P. nomination. Then, in discussing the popular Governor of California, Earl Warren, the article draws to a conclusion in this fashion: "But for Vice-President? Ah, there Warren is everybody's sweetheart." Dewey and Warren—Stassen and Warren—Bricker and Warren—Sounds good, doesn't it, boys?

I mention this portion of the article because so many of us in this vicinity are interested in what may happen to our own Governor, Leverett Saltonstall, when the convention has been in session a day or two. Our Governor and Ohio's Senator Harold Borah are still, in my opinion, a pair of men to watch closely as the political drama unfolds at Chicago next month. Saltonstall vs. Corcoran

Now that Honey Fitz of Boston, whose grand-daughter has just married into one of England's finest and oldest families, has made it clear that he does not seriously propose to make the actual race against our Governor for the United States Senate, it looks as though Mayor Corcoran and his bride would have to carry the burden of this heavy assignment. Obviously, the typical Democratic politician has no stomach for a contest with our popular Chief Executive. For a time, they seemed to be a pair of men who would be interested to see what happens in November.

Our Congressional District

Interest has recently been aroused in the Tenth Congressional District, which includes Newton, as all my readers doubtless realize.

Elected To Student Offices At Simmons

Three students from Newton and vicinity were elected to student offices at Simmons College, it was announced at a student government party held on the college campus recently.

They are Miss Edythe Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Davenport, 221 Valentine street, West Newton; Miss Mildred Libby, daughter of Mr. Levi Libby, 190 Summer street, Newton Centre; and Miss Eleanor I. Demirian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Demirian, 17 Woodward road, Newton Highlands.

Miss Demirian was named editor of Microcosm, the college yearbook, for next year, as well as treasurer of the Cercle Francais, and representative to student government from the School of English. Miss Libby was elected chairman of the surgical dressings unit of the Y. W. C. A., while Miss Davenport was named treasurer of the English Club.

Former Congressman George Holden Tinkham of Boston is still considering the wisdom of running for the Democratic nomination, despite his life-long status as a Republican. Everybody knows that old Tink, as he is familiarly called, has invariably received a heavy Democratic vote on election day. Should he succeed in walking off with the Democratic nomination at the state primaries, he could count on getting a great many Democratic votes in November. In this respect, he would be in a stronger position, possibly, than the sitting congressman, Christian A. Hooper. However, it does not seem likely that Tinkham will actually go through with this proposition. It would cost a lot of money and take tremendous amount of time and effort. Comebacks are always difficult things to stage successfully. Mrs. Mary Curley Donnell, is much more likely to get into the race. She is the highly publicized wife of a Congressman. James M. Curley. She is expected to have the women cast a tremendous vote in the coming primaries and election, and she sees no reason why the majority of them should not give her a lift. Maybe, so.

Newtonians will learn with profound regret that the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, Representative Albert F. Bigelow of Brookline, has finally decided to lay down the burden he has carried for so many years so faithfully and so efficiently. Let us hope that our neighboring community will select a worthy successor. Brookline is well equipped with sound businessmen and high-grade professional men who could carry on the high standard set by Albert Bigelow. All those who are sincerely interested in sound, economical state government will be watching the Brookline situation closely during the coming weeks.

A Newtonite On Broadway

by Saul R. Exelbert

MAKING THE ROUNDS—(In Radio) Break this gently to Junior. That Radio's All American Boy, Jack Armstrong, heads for Great Lakes as a "boot." That Captain Midnight may soon join forces with Uncle Sam. That Superman is still L.P. And a scoop. Thousands who are turned away from Radio's leading broadcast, "Truth or Consequences"—NBC Saturday—now have the chance to see the hit show the night before in a preview program for recording purposes. So if you ever take that midnight week-end trip to N. Y., run don't walk to Rockefeller Plaza for the practice program. . . . For late hour broadcast enthusiasts, try tuning in on "Rumbus Room"—11:30-12:00 p. m. on Wednesday evenings. Comedy in host Bob Olson, guest stars, music and fun. At least it will wake you up from slumber for bedtime.

(On Broadway-The Movies) . . . Maureen O'Hara, Linda Darnell, and Thomas Mitchell share leading honors with Joel McCrea in "Buffalo Bill," at the Roxy. Good show if you like Wild West and historical characters plus background. "Lady in the Dark," is still a sell-out at the Paramount with Cugat on stage. Colorful musical. Good scenes. "The Song of Bernadette," at the Rivoli should be a "Must-see." Errol Flynn and Paul Lukas do good jobs in "Uncertain Glory," at the Strand. Lukas again in a Nazi story at the Globe in "Address Unknown."

And a warning. You are going to find trouble in getting in to see Broadway cinemas. You better come prepared for waiting in line. (On Broadway-The Theatre) . . . The three best in comedy, musical, and drama as up to April 24, 1944. Comedy—"The Voice of the Turtle"—but ticket situation impossible—standees maybe. Try reading the Sullivan-Nugent hit in Collier's, April 29 issue. "Jacobowsky and the Colonel" and "Chicken Every Sunday." The latter two were okay in Boston recently, just came to the big city. Both are doing well. "Over Twenty One" and "Three A Family" are still hits but the newcomers are getting the paying seats. Drama—"O'Kellys" positive. "Decision," but I hear there is a second company in Boston. The show is the same so see it there. And another newcomer on Broadway, "The Searching Wind"—Otis Skinner, Dudley Digges making good in this a sell-out. Musical—Do I have to say "Oklahoma"? Also, "One Touch of Venus" if you get tickets, I know a Mayor who would like to go. "Carmen Jones." "Early to Bed," are easy to see and good shows. "Mexican Hayride," had a nice run in Boston and is doing wonders right on the big, bright lane. Their magnificent billboard is a show in itself. Refer to Life Magazine for that.

OPERIA—May Day will be Opera Day in New York. For on May 1st and to run two weeks, the City Center Opera Company and the San Carlo Opera Company will show "good" opera at low prices. The Center Theatre at Rockefeller Plaza stars the San Carlo troupe, while City Center, (W. 55th Street) has a repeat demanded group.

For my money I'll take City Center with such hits as "Carmen," "Tosca," "La Boheme," "La Traviata," "Martha," "Cavalleria Rusticana," and "Pacifika," as the offerings. And well known performers as the Mexican prima donna Irma Gonzalez (La Boheme), Dulsolina Giannini (Carmen), Dorothy Kirsten (La Traviata) and Regina Resnik—new Metropolitan winner (Cavalleria Rusticana). Others such as Marie Benini, George Czaplicki, Mary Martha Briney, Natalie Bodany, and Edward Kane are on hand to lend talents to this grand two week show.

(Ballet) . . . Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo closes at City Center April 29, while the Met's Ballet Theatre continues for two weeks in May. Both are excellent.

Waban

Mrs. James Lally of Waban is at Boca Raton, Florida combining a vacation with a visit of her son, who is a Flight Officer at Boca Raton Army Air Field.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Guiney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Guiney of 19 Samoset Road, has been elected president of the class of 1945 at Bates College, Lewiston, Maine, where she is also a member of the Student Government Board. Miss Guiney was graduated from the Newton High School in 1941 and was on the National Honor Roll during 1940 and 1941.

Peace

As folded are the wings of light
When stars announce the quiet night
As winds surcease on turbulent sea,
And calm stills a boat in a quiet sea,
So peace will come to this warring world
When the flag of Truth is by all unfurled.
When wrangling pens and tongues shall cease,
And minds will concentrate on Peace,
When greed and feverish love of self Departs with glorifying self,
Then calmed will be this maddened plane,
And peace descend on a world grown sane.

Alice M. Nichols, Newton Highlands.

Major Earl D. Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carlson of 93 Adena Road, West Newton, having recently completed his 24th and 25th mission as pilot of a Flying Fortress when he flew more than 3,000 miles in a 36 hour period in raids over Berlin and enemy air fields in France, is eligible for leave.

Major Carlson who is one of the youngest majors in the Army Air Forces described his trip over Berlin as follows:

"We were high over our Berlin target and had dropped our bombs when flak hit us and burst the oil cooler in the No. 3 engine. We lost speed and the engine vibrated so much it shook us around like ice in a cocktail shaker. It had quit the formation and had handed over the lead of the group to a deputy, deciding to head for home alone. We saw no enemy fighters, though there was plenty of flak. We held off calling for fighter protection so as not to attract enemy attention to our plight. After being alone for an hour and a half, we sent out a request for fighter cover, which arrived shortly and took us out of the danger area."

"This was my toughest operational flight. I saw the Wilhelmstrasse as plainly as could be and also saw fire and bomb bursts on the target."

N. J. Burke of 1265 Walnut Street, Newton Highlands, Boston Massachusetts.

Lt. Couzens Given Citation

Lt. James S. Couzens, USNR, 28, executive officer on a destroyer has been cited by the Navy Department for "outstanding performance of duty as a gunnery officer aboard a U. S. Naval vessel during an attack on an enemy submarine."

"When the hostile submarine was contacted and forced to the surface by damaging depth charge attacks, Lt. Couzens immediately identified the targets in the darkness, opened fire with his ship's main battery and controlled the gunfire with such accuracy and effectiveness that within six minutes after the first devastating salvo had been delivered the enemy submarine was abandoned by the surviving members of her crew and sank," the citation continued.

"The expert technical skill and courageous devotion to duty of Lt. Couzens throughout this extremely hazardous mission contributed materially to the final destruction of the hostile vessel and to the prevention of further losses to Allied shipping."

Lt. Couzens was commissioned an ensign on June 6, 1941 and the following day was married to Miss Mary T. Toner, daughter of James V. Toner, president of the Boston Edison Company, and Mrs. Toner. Mrs. Couzens is at present making her home with her parents at 14 Lockwood Road, West Newton.

Lt. Couzens, who was born in Yonkers, New York, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Couzens. He was graduated from Brown University in 1938 and before entering the service was in the banking business. At Brown he was a member of the swimming team and of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Sports

Behind the one-hit hurling of southpaw Joe McManus, the Newton High School baseball team collected 16 hits off three opposing hurlers to chalk up its third Suburban League win by blanking Rindge Tech, 13 to 0, at Russell Field, North Cambridge, yesterday.

McManus, whose perfect game was spoiled by a single in the sixth off the bat of Russ Haley, fanned six batters and gave up three walks as he came within one hit of matching Les Hayes hitless performance of last week.

Johnny Recco set the pace at bat for veteran coach "Jeff" Jones' nine as he poled out a triple, a double, six hits and gave up three walks as he came within one hit of matching Les Hayes hitless performance of last week.

The Orange will meet Arlington for the second time this year when it travels to Arlington on Friday for its fifth league contest.

Giving up a hit after two were out in the ninth, Jimmy Collins of St. Sebastian's Country Day School of Newton, missed the Hall of Fame as the Garden City nine smothered Browne and Nichols of Cambridge, 8 to 1, in a non-league baseball game at Alumni Field of Boston College yesterday.

Johnny Lyons, opposing moundsman, spoiled Collins' perfect game and drove in his team's only run with the only Cambridge hit of the game. Eddie Mulhern was heavy hitter for the home team with a double and a single in three official trips to the plate.

Baseball has started off with a bang. Let's take a gander at what has happened so far.

MORTGAGE SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue and in execution of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Thomas E. Mullen to Thomas H. Burns dated February 19, 1933, and recorded with Middlesex County Deeds, Book 6187, Page 265, of which mortgage the undersigned is the holder, and in pursuance of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same and all the rights and equity of any person having any title or interest in the premises, the said Thomas E. Mullen, the mortgagor, has caused a Public Auction on the premises hereinafter described, to be held at Public Auction on Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of May, 1944, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises described in said deed, to-wit:

The land in that part of said Newton Highlands, with the buildings thereon, being lots 12 and 13 on a plan by E. S. Smith dated December 22, 1905, and recorded with Middlesex County Deeds in Book 6187, Page 265, of which mortgage the undersigned is the holder, and in pursuance of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same and all the rights and equity of any person having any title or interest in the premises, the said Thomas E. Mullen, the mortgagor, has caused a Public Auction on the premises hereinafter described, to be held at Public Auction on Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of May, 1944, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises described in said deed, to-wit:

Southwesterly by Ballard Street by two lines measuring respectively one hundred twenty-three and 83/100 (123.83) feet and forty and 57/100 (40.57) feet; Southeasterly by land now or late of Jackson one hundred sixty-five and 42/100 (165.42) feet; Northeasterly by said Jackson land one hundred sixty-four (164) feet; Northwestern by land formerly of Newton Savings Bank one hundred and sixty (160) feet; Containing about twenty-six thousand three hundred and twelve (26,312) square feet of land.

That the record title to said lot of land is clouded by a mortgage given by Albert W. Muther, to Bessie S. Young and Roderick T. Young, dated September 27, 1920, and duly recorded Book 4389, Page 560, Middlesex South District Deeds purporting to secure a note for $5000.00, payable in three years from said date with interest annually, which mortgage appears to be not properly or legally discharged of record.

By reason of the foregoing facts: There is of record an assignment of his interest of said mortgage given by Roderick T. Young to Max Finkelstein dated (presumably an error) July 12, 1929, recorded with said deeds on July 12, 1929, Book 4448, Page 40 and a further assignment from said Finkelstein to the Liberty Trust Company dated July 13, 1921, recorded with said deeds on March 24, 1923, Book 4598, Page 325.

There is of record no instrument recorded by said Liberty Trust Company purporting to discharge or further assign its interests in said mortgage. There is a discharge executed by said Bessie S. Young and Roderick T. Young undated recorded with said deeds on January 16, 1924, Book 4695, Page 171.

That for more than twenty years after the expiration of the time limit for the full performance of said condition no payment has been made and no other act done in recognition of said mortgage; and

That the mortgagor named in said mortgage and those claiming under them have been in uninterrupted possession of said land for more than twenty years after the expiration of time limited in said mortgage for the full performance of the condition thereof.

WHEREFORE your petitioner prays that after appropriate notices a decree may be entered on the foregoing allegations as authorized by Section 15, Chapter 240 of the General Laws as amended by Chapter 20 of the Acts of 1924.

HELEN M. PORTER
Middlesex, ss. Case No. 7890, Misc. (Seal)

Upon the foregoing petition, it is ordered that the petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said land to appear before the Court at Cambridge before ten o'clock in the forenoon on the twenty-ninth day of May 1944, the return day of this citation.

Witness, John C. Leggat, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-four.

Pomroy House Girls Hold Annual Exhibit

The members of the 4H cooking and sewing clubs of the Rebecca Pomroy House, a Member Agency of the Newton Community Chest, Inc., held their annual exhibit and contest at the Community House on Hovey Street on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Alice W. Brown, Associate Agent of the 4H Extension Service, examined and judged the muffins, salads and articles of clothing which the girls had made and brought to the exhibit. The two blue ribbon winners in Mrs. Frediani's cooking club were Virginia Fahy and Virginia Neville. Geraldine Pelligrini, Jeanette Costa and Mary Smith won the blue ribbons for their respective clubs whose leaders are Miss Helen I. Sandstrom, Mrs. Marie Gilbert and Mrs. Walter Forbes. Miss Edith Jalonen, a former 4H club member, is now a leader for the past four years had an outstanding record for her club. She has three members who have been with her for the past four years and each of these won blue ribbons for their excellent work on clothing. They are Eleanor Quinlan, Claire Dugan and Ann Hoban. This Club is also a banner club having ended with the same girls with which the club started in the fall. Mrs. Frediani's and Miss Sandstrom's groups were also banner clubs.

Jalonen, a former 4H club member's Supper Club prepared supper and invited Mrs. Brown as their guest so that she might see the type of work done in this group. This was another banner club. This is another group which has met with the same leader for the past four years and it is the second time they have received a gold seal for finishing the year with the same girls with which they began the season.

A poster contest was held and the girls showed a balanced daily diet which would provide sufficient vitamins and minerals for a day. Doris Frediani, Geraldine Pelligrini and Dorothy Cafarelli won blue ribbons while Mary Cox received excellence for her exhibit.

A number of mothers and friends were present including all leaders and Miss Jean Lesperance, City Nutritionist and Miss Sylvia Frediani, Junior Leader.

Gaths Guards, of Newtonville, are making a huge success of sponsoring a collection for cigarettes and candy for Newton boys in all branches of the service.

Girl Scouts To Hold 25th Annual Meeting

For their Twenty-fifth annual meeting, to be held May 13th, at the Hotel Statler, Boston, the Massachusetts Girl Scouts, Inc. are planning an impressive celebration, and a reunion of many old friends. Delegates from Newton will be Mrs. George Larsen, Commissioner of the Newton Local Council of Girl Scouts; Mrs. Angus Brooks, the Executive Secretary; Mrs. William McAdams, Mrs. Kenneth Crafts and Mrs. Charles Wenden.

The History of the Girl Scouts in Massachusetts will be portrayed by pageantry in which will appear such eminent Girl Scout leaders as the three first commissioners, Mrs. James J. Storrow of Lincoln investigated the first leaders' course in the country and made possible the present five Girl Scout camps operated by the State organization, also the International Girl Scout Chautau at Adelboden, Switzerland. The second commissioner was Mrs. Carl P. Bennett of Boston, who started the first Brownie Scouts. Thirdly came Mrs. Arthur W. Hart of Brookline, under whose able leadership the Massachusetts Girl Scouts became a large and prosperous organization. Many "old-timers" will be present to see friends and greet those who have more recently come into the organization.

The program will also include a presentation of several of the new ideas which are being tried out in Massachusetts Scouting today. Officers for 1944-45 will be elected. The meeting will close with a guest speaker, the Reverend Leslie T. Pennington of Cambridge, who will speak on a subject based on the quotation by Lady Baden-Powell, "But we are out on the big, broad, wide, far-reaching road."

A Mother's Day Message

Of all the Mother's Days we have lived through, this should be the most glorious, for if ever valiant was the word for Mother, this year it should be written in capital letters. It embraces today's war-bride mothers, the mothers of our fighting heroes, and those mothers who await bravely on the Home Front.

There is the job of maintaining the health and morale of the families, and thus of sustaining the morale of the fathers in the armed service. Today we have 11,300,000 men and women in the armed forces, fighting for "Freedom from Want" for themselves and their dependents. Our obligation is to guarantee that the allotments they provide for their families will buy food and shelter at prices within their reach.

This will not be the case if we have inflation which, uncontrolled, will mean a "half a loaf of bread or a quarter of a loaf, instead of a full loaf." No soldier or sailor can fight this war efficiently if one of the freedoms he is fighting for—"Freedom from Want"—is being destroyed in his absence. And, he himself must be assured of returning to a normal peacetime world and a sound economic system in this country, not to a country torn to pieces by inflation, with his war bonds worth half or less than he paid for them through a purchasing dollar that has sunk to a tragic low.

Few people take into consideration the moral responsibility of compliance with the price and ration control system established by their government for their benefit. When through our inherent selfishness we strive to cheat, we cheat only ourselves, and those nearest and dearest to us.

There is no better way to bring home this moral duty to the people except through the MOTHERS. For the safety of our country we ask that you bring this message to your friends on Mother's Day, that we may venerate those mothers who are living up to the simple standards of wartime necessity: they pay no more than ceiling prices, and they pay their ration coupons in full.

They are instilling the highest principles of good citizenship in their children, they are ensuring a "FAIR SHARE AT A FAIR PRICE FOR ALL," and they are fighting as loyally for the future of America and the world as their sons and husbands at the battle front.

Recent Deaths In Newton

An Old School Teacher

Last week an old school teacher passed from being us. There was a little notice in the newspaper which gave the information as to the date of her death and the time of her funeral. The notice was away down among the "W's", for her name was Emily Wheeler. People who knew her were touched in various ways. Her friends felt sorrow at her loss but they were glad that her passing was a swift and easy one. Besides she was in her mid eighties, and that is a long time to live.

Her neighbors will miss her, for she stood for something among them. She never let down. She might have, for there were plenty of reasons she might have given but she never did let down. Many of her former pupils kept in touch with her and loved her. She had a bright mind and had strong political views, always standing her ground firm in her beliefs.

She loved all living things and that is a pretty big group. No animal ever went away from Emily Wheeler's place hungry. There is a round hole cut in the barn door especially for cats to enter that might need a temporary refuge from storm or enemy. Never a bird came near that ever lacked for water or food, and she knew every species of them.

But it was her garden that was her pride and her special joy. Emily made a garden for us all.

Newton Rotary Club

Past Presidents' Day

At the outstanding meeting of the Club last Monday, Edwin O. Childs presented to Charles H. Meeker, District Governor of the 197th Rotary District, a beautiful gold watch—the gift of the 197th District—for his wonderful record as a great member and past president of the Newton Club, and governor of the district. Ned Childs ended his remarks by saying "that it was given with a wealth of sunshine, song and love."

President Herbert McGill immediately turned the meeting over to Vice President Orville Clapper, who in turn "passed the buck" to Rev. Ray A. Eusden, who took charge of the meeting. Ray said that the credit was due Orv. Clapper's fertile brain which gave birth to the idea of a Past President's Day. To each of the Past Presidents a beautiful mahogany brass-bound gavel was presented as a token of esteem from the club to these Past Presidents, and so on.

The first President and founder of the Club was William T. Halliday, president 1923-24 and 1924-25, and the only man to hold the office more than one year. Bill is now in Washington where he has been for the past several years and hence, was not able to attend the meeting.

Ira S. Roe was the next President—1925-16. Ira put new life into the club and followed the high traditions of Bill Halliday, and was present today.

Duncan Wright—1926-27 was not able to attend as he is in Maine.

Cecil W. Clark—1927-28—was the first Past President to still be extremely active in the club. Cecil shows the real spirit of Rotary in a glorious fashion.

Arthur H. Ellis—1928-29—also among the missing today.

Charles D. Ansley—1929-30—a good energetic president and still a member of the club.

Dr. Edward Mellus—1930-31, Ed has since passed on. He was a genial soul of deep understanding of human nature and is missed by the club. At the mention of his name the club stood for a moment of silence in his memory.

Frank L. Richardson—1931-32. Frank kept the club on a gold standard of high Rotary purpose. Incidentally, Frank has just come from the hospital and hence, was unable to be present today.

Walter L. McCammon—1932-33. His was a year of fine service. He was not able to be present today.

Harry H. Hanson—1933-34, the first Past President introduced who is a charter member of the club and has had 20 years of perfect attendance.

Lyscom A. Bruce, 1934-35—now in Worcester and very active in Rotary there.

James B. Melcher—1935-36—added a great deal to the life of the club.

Walter H. Gregg—1936-37 is also a charter member. A great tribute was given to Walter for his geniality and hand-shaking.

Frank R. Clark—1937-38—one of the bulwarks of the club. He was on hand today but was called away early on a case.

Paul E. Elicker—1938-39. Paul is now in Washington but very active still in Rotary. A word of greeting was read from him today.

A. Norman Needy—1939-40—who peaked up the club a great deal during his term. He was on hand today.

John J. Cahill—1940-41. John brought in a great deal of new life to the Club—many young members were taken during his term.

Charles H. Meeker—1941-42 is the only past president to become a district governor of the 197th District. A very high type of service has been rendered to the club, to the district, and to Rotary International because of Charlie.

Matthew E. Butler—1942-43. Mattie has given a great ovation today for the innumerable acts of service he has rendered over the past years—by his floral tributes to sick members and many guest speakers' wives. It was through Mattie's kindness that the Newton Rotary Club Foundation was started.

This was one of Newton Rotary's finest meetings and naturally attracted many guests. The visiting Rotarians included Richard Bennett and Wray White of Natick; Joseph E. Perry, T. E. Kellar, Charles Dacey, all of the Boston Club; Walter Bailey of Watertown; C. T. Flint, Cambridge; John Kennedy and Paul Pandolf of Needham; Harry Healer also of Watertown; Robert Shoemaker, Worcester; E. P. McGill and Lt. Normal Reed, guests of Herb McGill; Jack McKearin, guest of Frank Hackett.

training went on the staff of the State Teachers College in Salem. There she was instructor in physical education and taught many branches of natural science. She made a very warm place for herself in the hearts of her pupils, and in subsequent years floods of tributes have come to her from former students living from coast to coast. Always publicly spirited, she gave widely for community needs, and as a sympathetic supporter of any agency that concerned the welfare of young people. She was a devoted member of the West Newton Unitarian Church, where a memorial service will be held for her at 3 o'clock on Thursday, May 11.

Long and invaluable experience has given Mr. Bellinger the knowledge so essential to the effective planning and conducting of funerals. He has the valued, skilled assistance of V. P. Mackay.

Elected President Of Women's Group

At the annual meeting of the West Newton Branch of the Woman's Alliance held recently at the First Unitarian Church, Mrs. Marshall B. Dane was elected president; Mrs. Robert H. Loomis, vice-president; M. J. William R. Mattson, recording secretary; Mrs. Harold W. Crocker, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Warren Ames, auditor.

The following committee chairmen were chosen:
Miss Elizabeth Hartshorne, cheerful letter; Mrs. William E. Tomlinson, fellowship; Mrs. Fred H. Morasch, hospitality; Mrs. Leonard Monzert, international; Mrs. Carl B. Graves, nominating; Mrs. W. J. Skinner, post office mission; Mrs. Ethel P. City, purchasing; Mrs. DeWitt R. Brouard, religious education; Miss Eleanor P. Hall, ways and means.

Mr. Joseph Earl Perry, President of the Newton Savings Bank, had a rather unusual experience last week, when he was invited to the forenoon discussion at the Annual Convention of the members of the National Association of Superintendents of State Banks, in New York.

The discussion centered around the subject of commercial bank service charges, and was presided over by the Bank Commissioners from Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Maryland, New Jersey, and all of the New England states.

So far as it is known, this is the only time when a non-member has been invited to lead a discussion in this Group, the reason in this instance being the fact that the subject under discussion was one that had been studied by the Group during the time when Mr. Perry was Commissioner of Banks and was a member of the National Association of Superintendents of State Banks.

Dr. Leonard also spoke of the success of the Burton Holmes Lecture.

The new officers were installed by Rev. Ray A. Eusden, D.D., who welcomed each one individually and wished them success in the work they will do during the coming months.

Following the installation of officers, Lt. Louis Narbonne, U.S.N., who has been promoted to be a member of the U. S. Naval Air Base in Squantum was introduced to the club members. Assisted by Edwin Blase, Seaman First Class, of Elmira, New York, Lt. Narbonne showed moving pictures of activities of the U. S. Navy. A captured German film was also shown of the capture of Holland by the Germans in May, 1940.

Fawcett Named As General Chairman

The appointment of William V. M. Fawcett of Newton as general chairman of the Massachusetts Council of the National War Fund, in preparation for the 1944-45 effort scheduled for next fall, was announced by Charles C. Cabot, who was recently re-elected president of the Council for the coming year.

Mr. Fawcett will be responsible for next fall's effort to raise the Massachusetts share of funds required to finance the USO, the United Statesmen's Service and 17 national agencies devoted to aid for prisoners of war and civilian refugees of the United Nations in 1945.

During the 1943-44 National War Fund campaign, which was officially closed May 31, a total of $4,598,844 has been raised to date for the National War Fund in Massachusetts. Thirty-two local community chests and funds, representing most of the principal cities in Massachusetts, and some 250 non-chest communities, joined in the national effort to finance essential services to American soldiers, sailors and seamen, as well as prisoners and refugees of all the United Nations.

Mr. Fawcett served as campaign chairman of the Newton Community Chest in 1941, and was associate chairman of the Central Metropolitan Division of Greater Boston United War Fund and a member of its Speakers Bureau in 1942. He is also chairman of the New England Region Boy Scouts of America. In business he is associated with Frederick J. Fawcett, Inc., of Boston.

The Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday evening elected Arthur A. Hunt of 16 Duffield road, Auburndale, as a member of the Board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of former Alderman Charles E. Hughes, alderman-at-large from Ward 4, who recently entered the military service.

The election was held in accordance with a new procedure prescribed by a recent act of the Legislature, with Mayor Paul M. Goddard presiding, as according to the new law authorizing the board to select successors of members who have entered the service, the mayor must preside during such election.

Alderman Hunt, who is married, and has one daughter, has been a resident of Auburndale for 35 years. He is in the wholesale rug business and is New England representative of the Tennessee Tufting Company of Nashville, Tenn. During World War I he served as a sergeant in Battery B, 55th Artillery, C. A. C. He is a past commander of Newton Post, American Legion and was appointed a captain in the National Guard by former Governor Calvin Coolidge.

He is a member of the Newton Committee on Public Safety and is a member and secretary of Selective Service Board 113 of Newton. He has been active in procuring blood donors for the American Red Cross Blood Donor Centre in Boston and has received a citation from the National Headquarters of the American Legion for having procured 500 pints of blood for the Red Cross in one day. He has himself given 13 pints of blood to the Red Cross and in past years has given 22 pints as a member of the blood donor squad of the Legion Post.

He was nominated by Alderman George A. Bacon and the nomination was seconded by Alderman Arthur H. Cox. President Joseph B. Jamieson appointed Alderman Hunt to the Franchises and Licenses committee and the Public Buildings committee.

Many Attend Golden Wedding Observance

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frechette of 76 Dalby street, Newton, were honored on Sunday, May 14, when more than 225 relatives and friends attended a reception in observance of their golden wedding anniversary.

Saturday an anniversary mass was celebrated in St. John's the Evangelist Church by Rev. Philip Flack, a member of the Marist Order. Lawrence, who is their nephew. The church was decorated with iris and gladioli. Seated in the sanctuary were Rev. Joseph E. Robichaud, pastor, and Rev. Leo T. Dumas. Fr. Robichaud told of coming to the Frechettes' home to live at the founding of St. John's the Evangelist parish, just 33 years ago on May 13, 1911. He said that Mr. Frechette not only was a founder of the parish, but has also been a member of the choir since it was established, and as president of the Vincent de Paul Society had been of assistance to the needy. Mrs. Evermont La-Croix, organist, directed, the choir and soloists were Mrs. Claire Murray, Charles Frechette and Albert Frechette. The three priests joined in offering the triple benediction.

A reception was held at the Nonantum A. A. Hall with Albert Frechette as master of ceremonies. Joseph Gagnon read a tribute. The Frechettes have four daughters, Anne Frechette, Miss Melora Frechette and Mrs. Blanche A. Gagnon, all of Newton, and Mrs. Gertrude Daly of Amarillo, Texas.

Among the many gifts was a bouquet of fifty $1.00 bills, presented to the couple by Norma Frechette, in behalf of the family. Congratulatory messages were received from two nuns in the Fiji Islands and from a nephew in the Army stationed in England. War conditions prevented the Frechettes from celebrating a double service with Mr. and Mrs. Omar Aubin of Quebec, Canada, who were married with them at a double wedding service in the Church of Our Lady, Newton.

Authorize $200,000 Sewer Bond Issue

The $200,000 sewer bond issue recommended by Mayor Paul M. Goddard was authorized by the Newton Board of Aldermen at their meeting on Monday night.

Action was deferred on the appropriation of $1,100 recommended by the mayor for demolition of the old Adams School at Water-ton and Crafts street, Newtonville.

An appropriation of $732.99 was made for the pension of Patrolman Richard J. Clancy from May 1 to the end of this year. An appropriation was made of $200 for settlement of a claim of Margaret Terrio for personal injuries received in a fall over a manhole cover on the street and an appropriation of $65 for settlement of a claim of the Silver Lake Chevrolet Company for damage to an auto that had been in collision with a car of the Health Department.

The sum of $19,000 was appropriated for construction of sewers in Brookline street and on private land in Oak Hill, and the sum of $700 for a similar project in Fox Lane.

The sale of the Rider estate at 525 Walnut street, Newtonville for $9,000 to the daughter of the previous owner was authorized by the board, with only one dissenting vote. This property had been acquired by the city through proceedings for non-payment of taxes. Last year an offer for purchase of the property made by the same party was rejected. Under the terms of the sale authorized on Monday night, the prospective purchaser has presented a check for $500 and has agreed to pay the remainder of the purchase price by May 31.

An offer of John J. Mitchell to purchase from the city a lot of land on Adams avenue, West Newton comprising 4,500 square feet was accepted by the Board and Mitchell was granted an option for six months. Two other offers to purchase city owned land were rejected as being inadequate.

Acting on an offer of Orrison G. Hagar to pay $200 for a lot of land on Lind road, West Newton, the board voted to accept the offer if it is raised to $225.00.

An application of Mary Eileen Keegan for a license to deal in second-hand articles at 1461 Washington street, West Newton, was granted.

While He's Away

Your boy in the Service? A vacant room?

An empty chair and the house like a tomb?
The day too long and the yard too still
And too much time on your hands to kill?
The crib in the attic, the battered blocks,
The apple tree swing, the toys in the box,
The baseball bat and the mittens gay
Remind you too often that Johnny's away.

That little armchair a child could hold
While pictures are painted and stories told.
The yard could resound to Commandos wild.
Why not fill that emptiness?
Board a child!

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

Republican Dark-horse

Shortly before Wendell Willkie's drive for the G.O.P. nomination for President began to stall, I started figuring on other possibilities. My mind went back to the spring of 1940, when the name of Wendell Willkie meant little or nothing to the average Republican voter. At that time an old friend of mine, the vice-president of a well-known Boston bank, told me that the man he earnestly hoped would be nominated was a mid-Westerner named Willkie. He admitted that not one man in a thousand even knew this man existed, but he insisted that he would be just what the doctor ordered for the Republican party. Frankly, I was startled. It didn't seem possible that a relatively unknown businessman, a former Democrat and a man whose chief reputation had been made in the world of big business, could possibly defeat men like Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan. These men were all tried and true Republicans with a nationally-known record of distinguished service. Only a political miracle would enable Wendell Willkie to win the nomination. That is precisely what happened. It WAS a miracle, engineered by some of the smartest advertising and publicity brains in the United States.

What about 1944? Can it be that another miracle is in the making and that some new dark-horse will appear on the political horizon? The answer is that it IS possible, even though not probable, at the moment. Bear in mind, please, that Dewey is now in some what the same position as Wendell Willkie a few short months ago. He is apparently out front, far ahead of any other contender for the G.O.P. nomination. It may well be that some of the leaders in the Republican party will gang up on Dewey just as they ganged up on Willkie. It never pays to establish too big a lead too early in a political contest. Furthermore, as has previously been suggested in this space, it is entirely possible that Gov. Dewey himself will take a sudden and unexpected firm stand and remove himself from the picture. If you cannot visualize that possibility, read that intensely interesting book entitled "The Men in the White House" by Frank K. Kingdon. You will find a number of excellent reasons why Gov. Dewey may decline to have his name presented to the convention.

Now, let's suppose that Dewey is no longer in the picture. What happens then? Can you imagine the convention nominating Gov. Bricker, Senator Taft of Ohio or even former Governor Stassen of Minnesota? If Dewey should be considered still too young and unseasoned, would not the same thing hold true of the estimable Naval officer, Harold G. Stassen? If we are to assume that F.D.R. will inevitably run for a fourth term, what possible chance would the Republicans have to knock him off with a Bricker or a Taft?

How about dark-horses? There is, of course, our own Governor, Leverett Saltonstall, highly regarded all over the country. There is also, the very intriguing junior Senator from Ohio, Harold H. Burton, who, incidentally, is speaking at the High School this coming Sunday evening, May 21, on the subject, "Religious Foundations of World Collaboration." (Pattern for Peace), at a meeting sponsored by the churches of Newton. There is likewise Rep. Dirksen of Illinois, whom several prominent columnists are beginning to talk about.

Is there another Wendell Willkie in the offing? I think there may be. My readers are urged to watch the current activities of Eric A. Johnston of Spokane, Washington, now serving as President of the United States Chamber of Commerce. He is relatively young, 46 years old, has been a Captain of Marines, makes a good speech and writes excellent articles (four of them appeared in Readers Digest during the past twelve months) and has a pleasing personality. As one brilliant writer recently said, "He does not knock heads together. He gets brains together." In that respect he represents an improvement, in technique, at least, over Wendell Willkie. He seeks to persuade rather than to engage in fierce combat. One of his theories is that our system "suffers not from lack of opportunity, but from the bureaucracy and the tax collector. There is but one salvation for our crippled giant. Unbind him! Strike the chains from his limbs and then behold him labor!" Watch Eric Johnston.

Post War Housing
Comfort and convenience without radical departure will be stressed in post-war housing, rather than the drastic dreams of houses at impossibly low prices the public has been led to expect. At a recent meeting on housing held under the auspices of the "Boston Consolidated Gas Company" it was brought out that the probable price range of homes to be built after the war would be about as follows: 1% under $4000; 48% from $4000 to $6000; 45% from $6000 to $8000, and 6% over $8000. The men who made these estimates were not dreamers, rather they were practical architects, builders and bankers representing the Greater Boston area.

Spring Clean Up
It takes years of hard work to build a good reputation—it can be lost very easily. For 75 years Newton has been called the Garden City—let's make sure that we deserve the title this year—it means extra work when we are short-handed—working long hours but it can be done. Many of our people in the service will be home on furlough—some from clean and well kept homes, some from far away places not so clean—to them Newton will look good, but if we clean it up it will look that much better—particularly the business sections. Let's give them a real clean up especially out back—the rubbish belongs on the dump—the paper should be salvaged—the main thing is to do a good job of cleaning and do it now.

F.A.D. Junior High School

Final rehearsals are being held this week for the Spring Concert under the general supervision of Mrs. Holmes and Mr. Jurgielewicz. The concert will take place Friday evening, May 19, at 8 o'clock, in our auditorium.

Last Thursday 204 students invested $232.75 in the Bonds and Stamps. All those purchasing Bonds this week will be privileged to visit the Liberty Ship on Wednesday, May 24, from 2 to 4:30 and 7 to 10 p.m. The ship will be at Central Wharf, North side of Atlantic Avenue, opposite State Street. Also these students upon showing their bonds, may obtain tickets at a booth on the Boston Common at the head of West Street, for the opening performance of the circus for the evening of May 23rd.

A most interesting display of the United Nations flags has been arranged by Mr. Sears in our main corridor as a prelude to this week's concert, the theme of which is the Allied Nations.

This is "I Am an American" Week. In Social Studies and English classes especially, students are discussing the topic. Our concert on Friday will be a fitting close.

Mr. Westgate reports that the Day Varsity defeated Bigelow 6-2 at Burr Park.

Hunnell Club Notes

The Hunnell Club offers sound pictures in color on Sunday evening, May 21, at 8 p.m.—"South of the Border" with Walt Disney. This is a diverting cartoon record of a trip made by Walt Disney and his talented crew to South and Central America.

Their impressions and experiences as they traveled from country to country are recorded through cartoons and actual photography, and the result is a colorful, highly entertaining and instructive film.

State-Wide Contests

Even though the general public is at the moment, some of our more versatile political spell-binders may succeed in arousing some interest in at least a few of the state-wide campaigns this summer. If there are no withdrawals, the four-cornered race for the G.O.P. nomination for Lt. Governor will be a honey. Right now Robert F. Bradford seems to have a slight edge, though Speaker King has powerful and widespread backing. President Hunt of the Senate cannot be discounted, either. There are rumors that the Beverly Mayor may withdraw. Also, just watch the cat-and-dog fight for Governor in the Democratic party.

25 Years Ago
Newton Graphic, May 16, 1919
City Clerk F. M. Grant has sent this week to every man who served in the army and navy of the United States during the late war, a handsome scroll expressing Newton's appreciation. Enclosed with the scroll is an invitation for the recipient to be the guest of the city at the Welcome Home celebration planned to take place on June 7th.

Newton won a "Start to Finish" flag last Saturday when in the closing hours of the Victory Loan Campaign subscriptions were received which carried the city well over its quota of $4,335,000.

Newton's quota in the drive for the Salvation Army Service Fund, which will begin next Monday, is $13,000, while Greater Boston is expected to raise at least $900,000 and the goal for the whole country is set at $15,000,000.

Bradford To Seek Lt. Governor Office

The membership of the Robert F. Bradford for Lieutenant Governor Committee was filed with the Secretary of State, Frederic W. Cook. Mr. Bradford, the District Attorney of Middlesex County, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

Maynard Hutchinson of Newton, treasurer of Loomis Sayles & Company, Inc., long prominent in civic and charitable organizations, and former chairman of the Greater Boston Community Fund, is treasurer.

First elected District Attorney of Middlesex County in 1938, Mr. Bradford was re-elected in 1942 by the largest vote ever polled by a Republican in the county. Since his first term in office criminal cases resulting in convictions have increased from the figure of 26 per cent established by his predecessor to 83 per cent. His administration shows the lowest prosecution cost for any five-year period since 1920. He has cut his office appropriations voluntarily year after year and refunded more than $166,000 to the county treasurer.

The Senior Youth Fellowship will meet on May 21 at 5:45 p.m. in the chapel of the First Methodist Church. Speakers and leaders of worship will be Ted Connors and Frank Hendry.

Telephone Kids' Quiz

HOW many needless calls are made in New England every day to "Information"?

About 123,000.

HOW does this affect service?

It needlessly hinders it. Many operators and a lot of equipment otherwise could be used in essential wartime service.

CAN Telephone Kids help?

Plenty! If, on important calls, they will look up their own numbers... dial carefully, or speak clearly to the operator. On unimportant calls — well, for the duration Telephone Kids are skipping that kind.

The term will open Sept. 6, the Wednesday after Labor Day, which falls on Sept. 4. The present school year also opened on the Wednesday after Labor Day, but that Wednesday occurred on Sept. 8, two days later in the year than the forthcoming opening day.

As was the case this term, the Christmas vacation will extend for a period of two weeks, from Dec. 18 through Jan. 1. The two-weeks vacation period was instituted to replace the one-week vacation for the two-fold purpose of conserving fuel and enabling the students to relieve the manpower shortage by working in stores during the holiday season.

Because of the scheduled early opening, the schools will close June 22 next year, so that the calendar will include a total of 183 school days, more than the minimum number required by state law.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

LAND COURT

Middlesex, ss. 7890, Misc.
To the Honorable The Judge of the Land Court for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
Respectfully represents Helen M. Porter of Rumford, in the County of Providence, State of Rhode Island that she is the owner of a land that she is the owner of a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon, situate in Newton, is the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, bounded and described as follows:

Southeasterly by Ballard Street by two lines measuring respectively one hundred twenty-three and 83/100 (123.83) feet; further, and 87/100 (40.57) feet; Southeasterly by land now or late of Jackson one hundred sixty-five and 42/100 (165.42) feet; Northeasterly by said Jackson land one hundred sixty-four (164) feet; Northeasterly by land formerly of Newton Savings Bank one hundred and sixty (160) feet. Containing about twenty-six thousand three hundred and twelve (26,312) square feet of land.

That the record title to said lot of land is claimed by a mortgage given by Albert V. Multer, to Bessie S. Young and Roderick T. Young dated September 27, 1920, and duly recorded Book 4389, Page 560, Middlesex South District Deeds purporting to secure a note for $5000.00, payable in three years from said date with interest annually, which mortgage appears to be not properly or legally discharged of record.

By reason of the following facts: There is of record an assignment of his interest of said mortgage given by Roderick T. Young to Max Finkelstein dated (presumably an error) July 12, 1920 recorded with said deeds on July 12, 1921, Book 4448, Page 40 and a further assignment from said Finkelstein to the Liberty Trust Company dated July 13, 1921, recorded with said deeds on March 24, 1923, Book 4698, Page 235.

There is of record no instrument recorded by said Liberty Trust Company affecting to discharge or further assign its interests in said mortgage. There is a discharge executed by said Bessie S. Young and Roderick T. Young undated recorded with said deeds on January 16, 1924, Book 4695 Page 171.

That for more than twenty years after the expiration of the time limit for the full performance of said condition no payment has been made and no other act done in recognition of said mortgage; and That the mortgagor named in said mortgage and those claiming under them have been in uninterrupted possession of said land for more than twenty years after the expiration of time limited in said mortgage for the full performance of the condition thereof.

WHEREFORE your petitioner prays that after appropriate notices a decree may be entered on the foregoing allegations as authorized by Section 15, Chapter 240 of the General Laws as amended by Chapter 20 of the Acts of 1924.

HELEN M. PORTER

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

LAND COURT

Upon the foregoing petition, it is ordered that the petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said petition to appear before the Land Court, at Cambridge, within and for our said County of Middlesex (where appearances and answers may be filed with the South Registry District of said Middlesex County, as Assistant Recorder of said Court) on the first Monday of July next, by causing a true and attested copy of said petition and this order to be published forthwith once a week for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, in said County of Middlesex the last publication to be fourteen days at least before said first Monday of July next; by serving each known respondent by registered mail with like attested copy of said petition and order as soon as may be and in any event fourteen days at least before said first Monday of July next; by that all respondents may then and there show cause why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

By the Court.

Shake hands with a Ray. Newton! look out of your windows a minute (we'll pardon your peeping) and watch the tremendous civilian army of men and women striding by your doors and hopping on your buses—24 hours a day, 6 days a week all bound for Raytheon's Newton plant, hurrying to punch their time cards and send down to the city work that will send vitally needed electronic equipment to relatives on the battle front. They're a good-natured crowd and they are fighting the home front war in a strictly American style—a good joke, a ready grin, a word of comfort to some serviceman's wife or mother—all coupled with a sturdy determination to make this war their personal business taking as their motto: "If you don't do it yourself, it won't be done right."

If you are interested in a vowel and consonant account of a Raytheon worker's week, we've prepared and salted with a few chuckles—let your eyes run through the following items.

Electronics go histrionic. When the final curtain was rung down on "The 1944 Rays of Fun," a musical revue presented by Newton plant employees, the cast and crew found that they had a sellout and a hit on their hands. Close to 90 Newton Raytheon employees participated in the production which was a combination minstrel show and Gay Nineties Revue.

Due to the high calibre of talent in the plant, the Raytheon employees were present to see the production and offered professional engagements to four Raytheon employees. Among those receiving such an offer was Don "Red" Barisano, maintenance mechanic and Newton resident. Don, who resembles Frank Sinatra both in voice and appearance, is considering these offers and hopes to do some professional work in his spare time outside of his war job.

The musical was produced under the direction of Joe Crossen with Ralph Garret as master of ceremonies.

He thinks you're beautiful, too. Tube Head Tim, our company mascot, says that a friend is a person who laughs at your funny stories even if they aren't so bad.

Enemy Agent—Accident. In a campaign against the 7th column—carelessness—the Newton plant is conducting a Safety Drive during the month of May under the supervision of Robert Carruthers, chairman.

Large signs and banners (one of which is 18 feet long) are being displayed throughout the plant and in the yards. Every other day safety meetings will be held under the loud speaker system explaining accident prevention. A contest is being held throughout the plant in which departments are competing for the lowest monthly accident rate.

The campaign is directed mainly against lost-time accidents," Mr. Carruthers said, "and the committee is making every effort to see that all employees are fully aware of the important part they play in the safety of themselves and of others."

"Gits" just don't cuss. Tube Head Tim picked this one up from the telephone operator: An old maid wrote the telephone company

Lt. Francis K. Duane of 216 River Street, West Newton, and Capt. Frederick I. Donovan of Winchester, are credited with destroying a German machine gun emplacement in a recent reconnaissance mission in Italy, according to a dispatch from the Allied headquarters in Naples.

They were in an advance detail with the Fifth Army Infantry on the Italian front. On advancing to the German position and searching houses as they moved forward they found dead Nazis and machine gun parts scattered about at the point where they had been attacking.

Newton Rotary Club

Rev. Ray Eusden discovered that Dr. Frank Clark was present at the Newton Rotary Club on Monday, and so Dr. Clark received the honors that were due him last week—namely, Vice President Orville Clapper presented to Frank Clark the Past President's gavel which were given out a week ago to all Past Presidents.

Winthrop Brainerd told the club that the Agricultural branch of Amherst College had sent out a circular on victory gardens, and a copy of the circular was put at each man's plate today.

President Herb McGill introduced Harry Kay, who in turn introduced the speaker of the day—Robert Bradford, District Attorney of Middlesex County who took for his subject "Post-War Planning." He started by telling about a man from the deep South who was sent to Washington to find out how things were run down there. When he came back his townspeople asked him to talk to them. At first he couldn't speak and then he said: "Gentlemen: You see that pole floating down there? There are 10,000 tax poles on that log and every dog one of them thinks they are steering it." This is the way things are being run in Washington. Hence, our post-war planning will have to be something different than how things are being run here. Mr. Bradford also stated that the City of Newton has the lowest tax rate of any city in the State and we are also leaders when it comes to the community chest drives, etc. There is a tendency coming which is very significant in the life of every one of us and that is, Organized crime is on the decline but there are 10,000,000 boys who are in the service of our country who have been exposed to all the dangers of warfare, and when they return it is going to be very difficult for them to fit into the future life of America. At present there are 6,000 men being discharged every month—40 per cent of them for emotional or mental reasons. The Army does not brand these men as all and it is a great mistake today to say that all of them are mental cases, but every one of these men will need sympathy, understanding and patience. They don't want regulation or regimentation. All they want is help—help to get them back into the regular pattern of their life. Service clubs of all types can organize committees and find out who, and where the boys are, and when they are coming back, and can help adjust them. It is impossible for home and family to take the boys home through. The big job now is up to the service clubs. Their committees will have to furnish jobs and it is up to service clubs to see that free opportunity is given them in every possible way. Work programs are not the answer—for idle money makes idle men. It kills the incentive or the initiative of every boy. It is up to the service clubs to see that they do not allow that to happen.

Among the visiting Rotarians were Jack Walsh of Waltham, Louis Bachrach, Charles Hewitt, Dick Robey and Russell Davenport of Boston; James O'Connell of Waltham; Clifford Wheeler, a guest of Jim Sherman, Sam Berger, guest of Peg Bon, and Net West, guest of Dr. Cecil Clark, besides A. W. Wundery and Mr. Proulx.

Next Monday the speaker will be E. Carroll Condit, a Past President of the Thayer-Mott Rotary Club in Burma. We are indebted to Scotty Salmond for securing Dr. Condit for us.

Capt. Edward J. Butler, son of Mrs. Edward G. Butler of 38 Charles street, Auburndale, has been promoted to the rank of Major in the Army Air Forces in the China - Burma - India battle zone where he is attached to the 14th U. S. Air Force.

Major Butler, formerly served as adjutant at Camp Edwards. He also served at the Command and General Staff School in Fort Leavenworth, Kansas and the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia.

He is a graduate of Boston University and was formerly associated with the Newton Trust Company.

Pvt. Bernard W. Ayre, son of Arthur Ayre of 42 Thornton street, Newton, has begun a 20 weeks' course at the Army Air Forces Training Command Radio School at Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Pvt. Ayre entered the Army in June, 1943. He is a graduate of the Newton High School.

Aviation Cadet John S. Wallour of 233 Grant avenue, Newton Centre, has completed his course at the Army Air Forces Flexible Gunnery School at Fort Myers, Florida. He previously completed his flight training at Maxwell Field, Alabama. Cadet Wallour is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wallour. He was graduated from the Browne & Nichols School in Cambridge.

Second Lieut. Robert P. O'Connell, son of Mrs. Maurice R. O'Connell of 65 Hartford street, Newton Highlands, has completed a four weeks' course in jump training and has qualified as a paratrooper in the Army Air Forces.

Urges International Organization To Keep Peace and Security

Awarded Silver Star Medal
Capt. Robert F. O'Brien, USMC, son of Dr. Edward O'Brien of 7 Washington street, Newton, has been awarded the Silver Star Medal for conspicuous gallantry in action at Tarawa, Tulagi, and Bougainville. During the Tarawa landing he had a narrow escape from death when a Jap bullet struck a carbine clip in his cartridge belt and set off 15 rounds of ammunition. He is credited with having saved the lives of more than 60 men who were in danger of drowning.

Capt. O'Brien has been in the Pacific area for three years and took part in the battles on Guadalcanal, Tarawa, Tulagi, and Bougainville. During the Tarawa landing he had a narrow escape from death when a Jap bullet struck a carbine clip in his cartridge belt and set off 15 rounds of ammunition. He is credited with having saved the lives of more than 60 men who were in danger of drowning.

Following his graduation from Dartmouth in 1941 he entered the Marine Corps and since then has only spent five days at home. The citation received by Capt. O'Brien reads: "For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity against enemy Jap forces in Tarawa, Gilbert Islands, Nov. 20-24, 1943. He, as a rifle company commander, by his cool, courageous conduct, was an inspiration to his men in leading them ashore under heavy artillery, antiaircraft, machine gun and sniper fire. After reaching the beach he quickly and courageously reorganized his company with utter disregard for his own safety, and assisted in holding a shallow beachhead during the night of Nov. 20, 1943. The following morning, he led his company in the face of heavy machine gun and mortar fire in an attack to the south beach of the island and aided materially in seizing a beachhead of sufficient length and depth to enable a division to land reinforcements and supplies. Throughout the entire operation, his initiative, leadership and disregard for his personal safety were an inspiration to his men. His actions were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States naval service."

MISS VIRGINIA HOLE

Has Privilege of Working With Miss King
Virginia Hole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hole of 68 Prospect Park, Newtonville, is now having the rare privilege of working with Miss King, the Hollywood designer who has recently completed all the costumes worn in the picture, Cover Girl.

During commencement exercises at Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri, where Miss Hole is now a senior, an air meet will be sponsored at which event costumes, suitable for the air-meet woman of tomorrow will be modeled. All these costumes have been originated by students now enrolled in the college art department, several designs submitted by Miss Hole having been judged outstanding by Miss King. As co-ordinator, everything submitted was first sketched in professional form by Miss Hole before being sent on to Hollywood where Miss King chose six costumes suitable for summer and six for winter wear. These are now being made in the clothing clinic at Stephens College. Accessories, also designed by the students, are being given by manufacturers, co-operating in the venture, Dache furnishing most of the hats.

All editors of fashion magazines have been notified and will either be present at the meet or send their representatives. Miss King, herself, will be on campus a week before the event in order to insure its success.

Besides acting as both designer and co-ordinator, Miss Hole will model and will appear in newsreels taken at the meet.

During her life at Stephens College, Miss Hole has maintained an enviable record of achievement, being consistently on the dean's list as well as active in the life of the student body. In her first year she was elected to Student Congress, was initiated into Beta Phi Gamma, a national honorary journalism sorority, and into Tau Sigma Tau, the honorary art sorority of which she was then made president. She has worked on the school weekly, Stephen's Life, this year acting as both cartoonist and make-up editor. At the close of last year she was given the Frank W. Dearing cash prize as the most outstanding junior at Stephens.

She is also College Board representative for the fashion magazine, Mademoiselle.

Sgt. Corcoran was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters. On May 19 he is to report at the Atlantic City redistribution center for a new assignment.

He was graduated from the Newton High School in 1941 and attended Boston College, leaving September 3, 1942 to enlist. He was sent overseas in May of last year. Thrift Center Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Thrift Center, Inc., was held on Monday evening, May 22. This is the third annual meeting since the incorporation of the organization in 1942.

In 1939, under the direction of the Newton Community Council and with the sponsorship of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, an organization was set up for the purpose of reclaiming useful articles of clothing donated by Newton citizens and redistributing them to those in need. This distribution was accomplished through the various charitable, welfare and social agencies.

As the Thrift Center grew, and expanded its activities, it became apparent that the organization had a definite place in the community. Incorporation seemed advisable and the necessary steps were taken.

Soon after the entry of the United States into the War, the Thrift Center set up a group of volunteers within its own organization to cooperate with the Red Cross in the distribution of clothing and other articles which might be needed in case of local disaster.

With the decline in the need for relief, the Thrift Center's activities have been directed mainly to volunteer activities, building up an inventory for post-war needs and co-operating in the collection of salvage material, such as paper, magazines, rags, metal, etc. The organization has been responsible for the collection of a considerable tonnage of such material.

Operating as a Newton Community Chest agency, the Thrift Center is proud of the fact that the cost of operating has been substantially reduced each year.

Wandering Thoughts Of A Recruit On A Sunday

Sweet, adorable darling of mine
I hope that you are feeling fine.
As for me, I'm feeling lonely
For you, Darling, and you only.

We train all week with little sleep
We have no other date to keep
A whistle's shrill, a sergeant's voice
We rush out, we have no choice.

It may be early, it may be late
But they are sounds that we all hate
We grumble and growl, and then we swear
They didn't tell us what to wear.

When we're in line, they tell us then
And rush us back to change again,
We stand in ranks and at attention
We're called names I will not mention.

A recruit stands straight, puts out his chest
Tries to be a soldier and look his best
All day we drill and work and learn
At night we're tired when we return.

We think we're abused, but that's not true
We know we're learning to fight for you
We're anxious to undertake this task
So we'll gladly do whatever they ask.

Today is Sunday, our day of rest
A joy that one does not protest
We think of home and feel much better.
Sit on our bunks to write a letter.

We think of our men now in the fight
Of how they must suffer each day and night
We admire our boys in every way
And hope to help them soon some day.

We think of our life and how it changed
And hope it will soon be rearranged
It's not basic training that we mind
It's love for those we left behind.

I love you, Darling, with all my heart
When I return, we'll never part.
For you, Darling, and you only
Can make me happy and not lonely.

Newton Notables

May 18, 1944

A few weeks ago we turned the spotlight on Mrs. Francis J. Flagg of Newtonville, nationally-known writer, editor and lecturer. She was the first lady to be featured in this column. This week we return to the other sex and consider the very colorful Prof. George Owen of Newton Centre.

Curiously enough, quite a number of Newtonians who have built up a splendid reputation, not merely in this city but throughout the country, are abnormally shy and modest. It required a stiff sales-talk to persuade Prof. Owen, whom I have had the honor of knowing for a great many years to give me a few facts and figures which could not be obtained elsewhere.

The subject of this sketch is the third of five George Owens, dating back to the Professor's grandfather, born in 1805, who was the first. The original George was a blacksmith, and one of the best. The second, George, the father of our Professor, was a landscape artist who commuted from Cambridge St., Cambridge to West St., Boston, where he maintained a studio. Those were the days of the horse-car. The fourth George was usually known as George Owen Jr., the famous Harvard athlete, is the only son of Prof. and Mrs. Owen. The fifth George is the son of young George who married Miss Lorna Trafford of Milton.

Our Newton professor was born on Cambridge street, Cambridge on May 11, 1871 in a house which still stands. How often we are reminded nowadays of the superior construction of some of our very old houses. He attended a private school in Providence, R. I., and then went to M. I. T. and graduated in 1894 with a B. S. in Mechanical Engineering. It seems that degrees in Naval Architecture were not given until shortly after that date. It so happens that it is in that particular field that our friend has made his nation-wide reputation.

Now for a little background. From 1894-1897 Mr. Owen was engaged in mill engineering at the Pacific Mills in Lawrence. The following three years he was at Bristol, R. I. with the famous Herreshoff concern, builders par excellence of yachts. It was at this time that he designed some of his first yachts. From 1904-1907, Mr. Owen was with the Fore River Shipbuilding Co. of Quincy. After that came eight valuable years when he was "on his own," carrying on yacht and ship designing. In the meantime, on April 26, 1900, Mr. Owen married a Providence girl, Miss Florence Wood. The couple had two children, George, previously mentioned and Florence, a talented professional singer with a rare contralto voice, who also teaches voice. She has been singing for several years in the First Baptist Church, Newton Centre and formerly sang in the Church of the New Jerusalem, Newtonville. Not satisfied with this career, she also acts as assistant to Mr. Norman A. Hall, bookseller of Newton Centre. In this store, incidentally, may be found many old first editions and rare manuscripts.

In 1915, Mr. Owen started in on his job and brilliant career at M. I. T., first as Assistant Professor and then as Professor of Naval Architecture. While there he was encouraged to continue his private work and he turned out over 180 different designs for yachts and ships. Racing yachts have always been the professor's big hobby and he is one of only three or four men in the entire country who have not merely designed but actually sailed their own boats. He has designed and skippered the Whirl, Dorella, Patricia, Vista II and the Sumaki, in each instance with great success. (And what a task it was to exact THAT information.) Among his bigger boats were a torpedo-testing ship and a combined passenger and freight steamer for one of the Great Lakes. The professor sailed the Atlantic Coast from Norfolk, Va. to Sydney, Cape Breton Island. He has also sailed on the Great Lakes.

Of great local interest is the fact that this versatile gentleman designed the first dinghy, which became so popular at M. I. T. and was copied in other colleges everywhere.

When Prof. Owen reached the compulsory retirement age three years ago, after spending twenty-six productive years at his alma mater, did he retire to a life of leisure? He did not. For a year and a half he has been teaching naval architecture at Gibbs and Cox in New York. As he is a born and bred New Englander with a deep love for his home diggings, he comes up from New York many week ends and stays with his family at 19 Glen Road, where he has just finished showing me how he climbed some half-dozen pine trees, fifty feet high, and trimmed off the branches and creosoted the tops to prevent rotting. And the man was seventy-three years young on May 11. As they say on the radio, "can you top that one?"

If you want a little inspiration, if you feel that the good old days have slipped completely from your grasp, just walk over to 19 Glen Road, receive a typical hearty New England welcome and renew your youth; George Owen will ALWAYS be young, if he lives to be 100. All Newton is proud of you, Sir.

Thompson - Hoitt

Miss Marian Belle Hoitt, daughter of Mrs. Louise Hoitt and the late Ralph Hoitt of 30 Bernard street, Newton Highlands, and George Marcus Thompson, Qm. 2/c U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Thompson of 18 Cheney court, Newton Upper Falls were married on Sunday, May 21, at 4 p. m., at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Newton Highlands, with Rev. Richard McCintock of Auburndale officiating at the double ring service.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. James Squire of Chelsea. She wore a gown of white marquisette, with fitted bodice and a full skirt and train and a finger-tulle veil with cap caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses with lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Leonor M. Hoitt, sister of the bride who was the Maid-of-Honor, wore a gown of sea-green marquisette, with matching head-dress and veil of sea-green net, she carried a bouquet of Tallman Roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Lawrence of Newton Highlands, and Miss Catherine O'Grady of Newton Highlands, classmates of the bride. They wore gowns of jonquil, yellow marquisette with matching net veils and headpieces of nets and carried bouquets of spring flowers.

The best man was Corp. Edward F. Thompson, Jr., USA, brother of the groom.

The ushers were Corp. Donald Anastase, Corp. U. S. Marines and Corp. Edward J. Foley of the U. S. Marines, of Newton Upper Falls, classmates of the groom.

The organist was Mr. Frank P. Pickett of St. Paul's Church. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the Parish House, followed by a wedding supper at the home of the bride, attended by the immediate relatives and friends. Corp. and Mrs. Thompson left on a wedding trip to Tiburon, California where the groom will be stationed for a few months.

Registration is, ordinarily, an extremely dry topic. Maybe it is dry even during wartime. However, in the interest of several thousand Mothers and Fathers who have members of their families in the armed forces today, I shall now emphasize a few facts.

Residents of Newton who have lived in Massachusetts for one year and Newton for the past six months may register at the City Clerk's office in City Hall from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. every day except Saturday, when the office closes at noon. There will be evening sessions at the City Clerk's office on Monday, June 12 and the following two evenings. On June 21, the office will be open until 10:00 p. m. AFTER that date, there will be no further registration until July 17, which is six days after the State Primary on July 11.

Finally, and of vital importance, please note that men and women in the armed forces who are absent from the city and unable to attend the regular registration sessions, may be registered by kindred. KINDRED means Spouse, Father, Mother, Sister or Brother, of the whole or half blood, Son, Daughter, Adopting Parent or Adopted Child, Step Parent or Step Child, Uncle or Aunt, Niece or Nephew. A relative who registers a man or woman who is absent from the city and in the armed forces, must do so at one of the regular sessions listed, and MUST

BE A REGISTERED VOTER OF THE COMMONWEALTH HIMSELF.

Mayor Tobin RUNS

Readers of this column may recall a paragraph I wrote some months ago about the personable Mayor of Boston, Maurice J. Tobin, who appeared to be headed for the United States Navy. At that time, a distinguished columnist for a Boston paper sounded off to the effect that it was definitely up to the Mayor to finish his term of office, clean up some rather pressing municipal problems and take drastic steps to keep the tax rate from soaring further toward the skies. I don't know just what happened behind the scenes, but I do know that Mayor Tobin never signed up with the Navy. It is, therefore, somewhat intriguing to have the gentleman in question suddenly enter the gubernatorial race against popular Francis X. Hurley, our present State Treasurer. Irrepressible Frankie Kelly is another candidate for the privilege of opposing Horace T. Cahill, the probable Republican nominee, although there is a bare possibility that Kelly may decide to run for some other state office. He has been defeated so many times that he may decide to take a chance in some other contest.

In the event that it becomes a two-man contest, what will be the result? The national administration will, of course, do all it can to defeat Hurley, who has consistently been the perpetuator of the Roosevelt dynasty. Mayor Tobin's own record may not be perfect, but his current stand is satisfactory to F. D. R. How big a vote can he roll up outside of the city he governs? Is the old Hurley machine throughout the state in smooth working order and properly oiled? Just how far will Mr. Hurley recede from his original stand, when he announced that he would NOT conduct an active, state-wide campaign for the nomination? Obviously, he realizes that Mayor Tobin is too powerful to be knocked off by a peaceful letter-writing campaign. He will be forced to speak over the radio and to stir up his workers all over the state. That will take much time, money and effort and the general public may not take too kindly to the normal high-pressure political campaign.

Let's take a quick look ahead. Which of the two Democrats will have the best chance to defeat Horace T. Cahill? It is hard to say. The name Hurley still carries weight in Democratic circles. The Boston Mayor, however, is very popular, especially with the fair sex, and incidentally, with a good many Republicans. Some of the Democratic soothsayers tell me that the Republican will be horrified to discover how many members of their party will kick over the traces and vote for Tobin in preference to Cahill. Maybe so; maybe not. We will wait and see. This much is obvious today. A hot scrap between the two will be in the administration of the city of Boston, might conceivably leave a trail of bad feeling which would help Horace Cahill on election day.

Alderman Hunt
Our hearty congratulations to an old friend, Arthur A. Hunt of Abundant, on his recent election to the Board of Aldermen. For many years he has worked hard and unselfishly for the best interests of his own village and the city as a whole. He will, without question, live up to the high standard set by past Aldermen from his district.

More Dairy Products Now Available

Despite wartime shortages of feed and farm help New England farmers have managed to keep milk production at a high level. As is normal, milk production on farms during spring months increases sharply and this year it will be only slightly less than the all-time peak reached in 1942.

Because of the seasonal upswing, milk dealers' sales quotas have been increased somewhat. It means that there will not only be more milk available for civilian consumption, but even larger quantities of cream, cottage cheese, buttermilk and other by-products.

The First Church Of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass.

In The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., and in all of its branches, a lesson-sermon will be read on Sunday, May 28, 1944, on the subject, "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced."

The Golden Text will be from Romans 16:19, 20, "I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly." Other Bible citations include, "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit." Matthew 7:15-17.

Also included in the lesson-sermon will be the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "Many are willing to open the eyes of the people to the power of good resident in divine Mind, but they are not so willing to point out the evil in human thought, and expose evil's hidden mental ways of accomplishing iniquity. . . . At all times and under all circumstances, overcome evil with good. Know thyself, and God will supply the wisdom and the occasion for a victory over evil" (pp. 570, 571).

ABOUT A STAR—This is about a musician who never needed stardom but got it by making a film. The picture "Thousand Cheer" introduced Jose Iturbi to movie patrons as actor, comedian, and all around star. To jitterbugs all over America, he became a "favorite." Even to those of the Metropolitan and Symphony following, Jose Iturbi was "great, still greater."

But Hollywood's new sensation, was no different, played no act. He was just regular. In everyday life, Jose Iturbi is the screen star of "Thousand Cheer" . . . the same person.

I met him at a luncheon at the Lotos Club some weeks back and I was amazed. Jose Iturbi was Jose Iturbi. Jolly, friendly, good looking, a great guy. Collector of pipes, a cook, mechanic, playmate to children. He rides a motorcycle around Beverly Hills where he lives. Can play "everything" at the piano, and has fun "playing at the piano." Flying is his hobby.

ABOUT THAT STAR—Jose Iturbi, hailed as music's No. 1 "career man" is pianist, conductor, composer, film actor, and Major in the U. S. Civil Air Patrol. He's a true product of the 20th Century. Began playing piano in 1900 when he was five, and at twelve, a group of citizens of Valencia, his birthplace, sent him to Paris where he entered the Conservatory on a special scholarship, graduating with highest honors.

Early musical success (at 17) brought Iturbi fame in Europe as a leading virtuoso and as head of the piano faculty of the Conservatory of Geneva—the first to hold this important post since Liszt. He stayed at Geneva four years until his many concert engagements throughout Europe established him as one of the world's leading piano virtuosos.

Iturbi opened his conquest of the New World in 1920 when he brought a Carnegie Hall audience to its feet by his brilliant performance with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra.

In 1933, he began his career on the podium, conducting in Mexico City, where he gave 29 consecutive bi-weekly concerts—an all-time record. Since then Iturbi has become a familiar and well loved figure as guest conductor with the leading symphony orchestras of this country and since 1935 as permanent musical director of the Rochester Philharmonic.

Iturbi still finds time to give piano recitals and has recently broken attendance records in Boston, Los Angeles, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Cincinnati, Dallas, Washington etc.

As a composer Iturbi is distinguished for his "Soliloquy," which the Cincinnati Symphony introduced in 1942, his "Fantasy" for piano and orchestra, "Lullaby," "Danza Pequena" and other piano solo works.

He has helped to raise millions of dollars in War Bonds and has played dozens of voluntary concerts for the men and women of the armed forces. His active membership in the famed CAP stems from his nearly 1,000 solo hours of service, and he is also the Civil Air Patrol's National Music Director.

Iturbi is the favorite of millions because he has not hesitated to learn and master popular music, idiom of the millions as well as his own classical repertoire. In Mexico he is called "Dios de Musica." It does not seem to be an exaggeration.

WATCH FOR HIM IN COMING MUSICALS . . .

He applied his brakes but stated and swerved to the right but Ross walked into the left rear of the trailer. Ross was injured about the head and was unconscious when picked up and taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. The accident happened at about 2:15 a. m. and he died at 10:05 a. m. Tuesday.

Newton Man Wins Second Award Check

At a short presentation ceremony Saturday at the headquarters of the Boston Chemical Warfare Procurement District, William M. Dempsey of 21 Stiles terrace, Newton Center, was presented his second award in the form of a check for one hundred and fifty dollars by Colonel S. E. Whitesides, Jr., Commanding Officer.

This past winter Mr. Dempsey submitted a suggestion for improvement in the printing and distribution procedure for production specifications in New England. An original grant of ten dollars was made, and the idea sent to Washington for adoption throughout all CWS procurement districts and arsenals. Colonel Whitesides estimated that Mr. Dempsey's suggestion will result in a direct savings to the Government of nearly nine thousand dollars per year.

During the last war, Mr. Dempsey served as a first lieutenant and instructor at the Army Gas School, Fort Kendrick, Lakehurst, New Jersey, and this is the second war that he has served with the Chemical Warfare Service.

The Chemical Warfare Service is an active participant in the War Department's nationwide suggestion program "Ideas for Victory."

Newton Kiwanis Club News

Several important announcements were made at the last Kiwanis Club meeting. One was to the effect that Kiwanis is sponsoring a send-off for a group of Newton boys leaving for the Navy on Friday, May 26th. All club members are asked to be at the City Hall at 7:25 a. m.

Next week's meeting, due to the holiday, will be held on Wednesday, May 31st. Archie Bellinger announced that as one of the July programs there was a possibility of a joint meeting with the Wellesley Kiwanis Club. Next week's speaker was announced by Bill Sullivan to be the District Attorney of Middlesex County.

Mr. Sullivan then introduced the speaker of the day, Mr. Anson M. Dubois, of the Human Engineering Laboratory, Inc., of Boston. The laboratory tests all kinds of people, measuring their specific mental capacities and testing for thirteen different inherited aptitudes. Seven thousand people have been tested over the past 22 years. The laboratory employs about 300 people, but the actual testing is in the hands of five or six individuals.

Mr. Dubois discussed various methods of testing and illustrated with several situations in which individuals were proven to be square pegs in round holes. The sex and age of those tested seem to make considerable difference in the results of the tests, but experience seems to affect the results only to the amount of 7%.

Persons failing in one line of endeavor may prove to be brilliant in some other field, and according to Mr. Dubois, it is a rare individual who can accurately evaluate himself. He spoke of the lone worker type of person, and the contact or mixer type and described how, unless one is in the right field of endeavor, unhappiness is likely to result. He told about various persons who were found to have excellent memory for some things, but poor memory for others.

hE laboratory is now working on tests for the measurement of good judgment. Ten years ago usually given over to the development of a specific test before it is put to use. This ordinarily requires an expenditure of close to twenty-five thousand dollars. All persons have inferior and superior abilities and according to Mr. Dubois, testing helps to indicate the general areas in which persons are skillful, but they are not infallible in pointing out one's specific life work.

In closing, he said that it is the wise man who will take the trouble to determine his own strong points and plan his work accordingly.

Rae B. Gale, a senior at Colby College, Maine, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Gale of 135 Kirkstall Road, was awarded the Chi Omega Prize in Zoology. This prize is given to the highest ranking student in this field.

Survivors May Be Entitled To Benefits

Survivors of men or women who die in the military service should communicate immediately with J. James T. Phelan, manager of the field office of the Social Security Board at 1248 Massachusetts avenue, Cambridge, to determine whether or not claim should be made for old-age and survivors insurance benefits. If the casualty had a social security number or was employed in industry or commerce before joining the service, it is probable that benefit rights had been acquired but if the survivors are uncertain as to this, inquiry should be made in any event.

Mr. Phelan cited today the case of a young widow whose husband died in action and who was unfamiliar with her rights under the Social Security Act. She made inquiry and was told by the Social Security Board office that she and her year-old child would receive $26 monthly until the child is 18. The total benefit payments to the widow and child will amount to $53.00, it was estimated.

The soldier was less than 20 years of age and had worked in employment covered by the Social Security Act only two years. Despite the brief period of his employment and the fact that his wages were less than $25 a week, his surviving wife and child were entitled to substantial monthly benefit payments.

Social security benefit payments can be received in addition to the monthly benefits under the national service life insurance and widow's benefits which might be payable by the Veterans Administration, the total payments often assure adequate income to dependent survivors.

Besides the benefits payable to widows and minor children, the Social Security Act provides for payments also to widows with no minor children, to adult children, grandchildren or parents, according to the circumstances of the case. These payments usually take the form of lump-sum cash settlement of the wage-earner's account.

Under existing law, it is possible for benefits to be lost while serving in the military forces, or benefit payments may be reduced by extended service. Pending legislation seeks, however, to protect the social security rights of persons in the military forces.

In any case, Mr. Phelan advises, survivors should, without delay, request the assistance of the Social Security Board field office in determining what, if any, benefit payments may be available.

This office is located at 1248 Massachusetts avenue (Harvard Square), Cambridge, Mass. The telephone number is Kirkland 7179.

Working to Complete Organization for Fall

Thomas E. Shirley, Newton general chairman of the 1945 Greater Boston United War Fund campaign, has been actively at work to complete his top organization for the fall campaign. The entire personnel in each of the past three years has exceeded 2500 volunteer workers in nine separate divisions, five of which are money raising and four planning, organizing and handling detail.

The top organization will consist of over 100 people and includes chairman, assistant chairmen, and village or sectional chairmen in each of these divisions. There will be about 2000 workers in the Residential division alone and about 100 each in the Advance Gifts, Mercantile, and Municipal divisions. The balance will be members of the Manufacturing and Educational divisions, the Publicity and Events divisions, and volunteer office workers, auditors, couriers, and supply division assistants.

To assist the general chairman in organizing his top organization and to lay plans for the campaign are three assistant general chairmen and an advisory committee. Mr. Shirley has selected his assistants and advisors for the coming campaign and announces their appointments with this statement:

"I am delighted that I am to have the support this year of three such splendid individuals. Mr. Preston, Joseph Wogan, and Harold Goldberg as assistant campaign chairmen and the guidance and help of an advisory committee of such fine past leaders as Charlie Floyd, Neil Leonard, William B. Plumer, and Joseph B. Jamieson."

Mr. Preston has been active both in Newton and in Greater Boston in past campaigns. He was chairman of the speakers' bureau in Greater Boston in 1942 and 1943 and has been active in Newton Chest affairs for many years.

Mr. Wogan has served on the Newton budget committee and has been active for years in local agency work. Mr. Goldberg has been an ardent campaign worker for the past four years, was assistant chairman in the Residential division in 1943, and was assistant general chairman in the last campaign.

Mr. Floyd was 1944 general chairman and 1943 and 1944 Red Cross chairman; Mr. Leonard was 1943 general chairman and retired in 1943 as president of the Chest only last month; Mr. Plumer is chairman of the Newton Community Council, was assistant general chairman in 1943, and was on the advisory committee last year; and Mr. Jamieson is president of the Newton Council of Boy Scouts and a member of the advisory committee for many years.

The 1945 campaign dates have not been definitely set. Henry Laughlin, 1945 general chairman of the Greater Boston United War Fund, is faced with the problem of having the national election and a War Bond drive this fall and must set satisfactory War Fund dates. These may coincide with the November campaign dates of last fall or may be earlier or later.

The Greater Boston goal in 1944 was $7,500,000, and Newton elected to raise $302,800. Both goals were exceeded, and it is probable that the 1945 goals may approximate the amounts raised in 1944.

Mr. George W. Bush's harness room on the 3rd floor of his stable, is probably the best in the city—large, airy, neat and tasty, filled with nice harnesses, all in the best of order; it is in proper keeping with the rest of this popular stable.

With the cars of the Newton street railway running through Washington street every 15 minutes, the north side of the tracks will be a great place for business, and the railway ought to bring a large amount of trade to this part of Newton.

Few persons probably are aware that Hawthorne wrote his Blithedale Romance in a house which is still standing on the corner of Chestnut and Highland streets in West Newton, and which was the home also of the great educator, Horace Mann. It is a curious illustration of the improvement which has come over the town that Julian Hawthorne says in the life of his father that a most dismal and unlovely little suburb near West Newton was in the winter of 1851 could not exist outside of New England. It was a place, he adds, where the omnipresent ugliness compelled a man to write in self-defense.

About 204 representative ladies and gentlemen attended the public hearing last evening at City Hall by the committee appointed to consider the matter of a new City Hall and Soldiers Memorial.

There was a well defined sentiment expressed by the majority, viz that the project of a Soldiers Memorial and the new City Hall, should be kept separate and that the City Hall should not be of the nature of a Memorial.

Helps Save Lives Of Five Shipmates

Ensign Stephen P. Mallett, Jr., of 129 Farlow road, Newton, a survivor of the sinking of the U. S. destroyer Lansdale in the Mediterranean on April 20, is credited with having helped to save the lives of five of his shipmates by giving up his own lifebelt, according to an announcement made from Washington.

When the order to abandon ship was given by the skipper, Lt. Commander Douglas M. Swift of Portsmouth, Rhode Island, after the destroyer had been split near by in two by a German torpedo plane, Ensign Mallett assembled five men, and taking off his life belt and kapok jacket had the group hold on to them until all were picked up.

The first word of the sinking of the destroyer and of his survival received by his parents was in a V-mail letter received from him recently in which he wrote that "the Mallett luck still holds good." Among other survivors of the sinking was Lt. Robert M. Morgenthau, son of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Ensign Mallett is the son of Dr. Stephen P. Mallett, oral surgeon in chief at the Boston City Hospital, and Mrs. Mallett. He attended Newton High School and prepared for Harvard at Kimball Union Academy. At Harvard he was captain of the freshman football team. He was graduated in the accelerated course last October and received a commission as ensign in the Naval Reserve.

His brother, Pfc. Charles Mallett, has returned home after 14 months overseas, where he served in a reconnaissance squadron under General Patton. He was wounded in Sicily and spent eight months in army hospitals before returning to his home. He enlisted on May 6, 1942 and after training in the Cavalry at Fort Riley, Kansas, went overseas in December, 1942. He is now awaiting re-assignment.

Newton Day In Greater Boston War Fund Observed

Newton Day is the Greater Boston United War Fund was observed on Wednesday, when the Greater Boston staff were the guests of the Newton Community Chest.

The principal feature of the day was a luncheon held at the Y.M.C.A., which was attended by the War Fund staff and executives of the Newton Chest Agencies, when Mrs. Frances Guild of the Greater Boston Community Council spoke about the information service rendered by hospital and health services, youth centers, and family service organizations to contributors of the Fund and residents of the Greater Boston area. H. J. Pettengill, Executive Director of the Newton Community Chest, presided at the luncheon and spoke briefly of the cordial relationship between the Newton Community Chest and the Greater Boston United War Fund and urged that a year-round public relations program be carried on of that the general public may better know the social needs of the community and the services which their dollars provide. Clarence Mease, General Secretary of the Newton Y.M.C.A., gave a splendid talk to the group on the coordinating services of the many Newton health and social agencies, explaining the many combined services now in operation where more than one agency participates.

The day's program started with a meeting at the office of the Chest at 93 Union street, Newton Centre, at which time the coming 1945 United War Fund Campaign was discussed. Mr. Pettengill explained the Newton system of dividing the city into villages and the villages into blocks for solicitation and described the handling of pledge cards from the time of issuance through solicitation, reporting, and auditing until the card with signature and payment reaches Boston headquarters. Other matters of mutual interest were discussed, and many constructive suggestions from specialists on many Boston staff were given which will unquestionably prove valuable to Newton in the coming Campaign.

From the Chest office, the entire group was taken to the Newton Hospital, where, through the cooperation of the Newton Community Chest, a tour was made of some of the important departments, including the x-ray room, operating room, nursery ward, library, and cafeteria. Following the visitation to the Hospital, a trip was made to the Rebecca Sandstrom House, where Miss Helen Sandstrom, Executive, introduced the visitors to the nursery school where they watched with interest the youngsters in their daily activities. Following this, clothing made by a group of young girls and women and exhibits prepared by girls in the cooking school were displayed. Miss Hilga Nelson, Executive of the Newton District Nursing Association, explained and demonstrated the well-baby conference, which is conducted each Wednesday at the Pomroy House. A final "come and see" inspection at the Y.M.C.A. followed. During the luncheon period the Agency Executives of the Newton Community Chest had an opportunity to discuss mutual problems with the Greater Boston staff.

Those present from the Greater Boston United War Fund were Elmer Pillsbury, Campaign Director; Bradford U. Eddy, Metropolitan District Executive Secretary, and the following staff executives: Reynold Lahn, William J. Colby, H. C. Welch, Thomas Gudmoe, Miss Ellen Lundgren, Miss Alice Titus, Mrs. Ruth Burns, Mrs. Katherine Kelley, Miss Florence Dorn, F. F. Newcomb, William Studley, John Clark, Warren Johnson, Noye Collinson, Executive Director of the Cambridge Community Federation, with his assistants, Mrs. Norman B. Chandler and Mrs. Edith Dirjian, was also in attendance.

Executives from the Newton Agencies included Robert E. Pettit, Executive, Norumbega Council of Boy Scouts of America; Richard Carlson, Norumbega Council Boy Scouts of America; Miss Harriet L. Parsons, General Secretary, Family Service Bureau; Mrs. Mabel B. Worth, Executive, All Newton Music School; Mrs. Winthrop Potter, acting Executive, and Miss Laura Jean Rood, Field Secretary, Newton Local Council Girl Scouts; Miss Hilga S. Nelson, Executive, Newton District Nursing Association; Clarence Mease, General Secretary, Newton Y.M.C.A.; Miss Helen I. Sandstrom, Executive, Rebecca Pomroy House; John Wheelock, Citizens' Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans; Miss Elizabeth Wheeler, Newton Hospital; Miss Esther Walther, Executive Secretary, Newton Community Council; H. J. Pettengill, Executive Director, Newton Community Chest; Mrs. Patricia T. Henderson, Campaign Secretary, and Miss Alice McKean, Financial Secretary, Newton Community Chest.

It was agreed by all that the conference, which adjourned with the conclusion of the speaking program at the luncheon, was an outstanding success and that Newton Day should be an annual occasion.

Hospital Aid Benefit Shop In Annual Meetin

The annual meeting of the Executive Committee of the Newton Hospital Aid Benefit Shop was held at "The Berkeley" Wellesley Hills on Tuesday, Mrs. Brewer Eddy presided and the Secretary-treasurer, Miss Ethel Woodberry, gave reports of the year's meetings and of the shop's finances. A staff of 125 volunteers from Wellesley and Newton are saleswomen for the shop which is open Monday afternoon from 2 to 4:30 and Wednesday and Friday mornings from 10 to 12. Almost everything may be found on sale at the Benefit Shop at 795 Washington street, Newtonville, from beds to buttons, from toys to trousers, from dolls to dustpans; you simply go in, look around and there is the object of your search. All the goods are donated by the Hospital Aid members and interested friends and are sold at very low prices. The Shop manager reported a good year with many donations and constantly expressed interest by customers new and old.

The success of the Shop depends necessarily on the generous support of the public, and as the accumulated earnings of each year go to some major benefit to our splendid Newton Hospital, it is definitely worth the time spent in operating, and the donations of our citizens, to keep up the stock; from time to time a list of things especially desired appears in the Graphic and your generous response will be deeply appreciated. The Hospital trucks will call for donations on Wednesday mornings if the request is made Monday or Tuesday—for this service call Mrs. Raymond Perkins BIG 8123. Small parcels may be left at the shop on the day it is open; or at other times at Mr. James' office, 799 Washington Street.

The nominating committee: Miss Louise Sherman and Mrs. Robert Whitehill presented the unchanged list of officers for the coming year as follows:

Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy and Mrs. Ralph Conant chairmen of executive committee. Miss Ethel Woodberry, secretary-treasurer, Advisory committee. Mrs. Oliver Loveland, Mrs. Dana Dutch, Mrs. Edward Rogers, Transportation. Mrs. Raymond Perkins, Manager. Mrs. Francis Williams, Asst. Manager. Mrs. Ernest Drew, Local chairman. Mrs. Wellesley, Mrs. Josiah Goddard and Mrs. E. F. Stevens; Waban, Mrs. Dana Dutch and Mrs. Samuel Douglas; West Newton, Mrs. Fred Keardy and Mrs. Edwin Rogers; Auburndale, Mrs. Ernest Drew; Newton Highlands, Mrs. Robert Briggs; Newton Center, Mrs. Arthur Allen; Newtonville, Mrs. Ralph Conant, Miss Louise Sherman, Mrs. Robert Whitehill; Newton, Mrs. Sherling Loveland, Mrs. Edgar Burkhardt and Mrs. W. Prescott; Newton Upper Falls, Mrs. Ernest Cobb.

At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Eddy asked Mrs. Theron Walliser, president of the N. H. A. ass'n to tell of the progress of the H. A. newest child, (sister to the Benefit Shop) the coffee and gift shop started in the Hospital last July. Mrs. Walliser gave a most interesting report of the success and growth of the shop which has met

Newton District Nursing Ass'n

Of especial interest to the Board of Directors of the Newton District Nursing Association, at their May meeting, was the description given them by Mrs. Rufus Soule of the newly inaugurated system for the library in the office at 297 Walnut street, Newtonville. Each book has been catalogued according to the system used by the Newton Library, and the work was done by one of the trained workers of that department. It is now possible for the directors, nurses or mothers to borrow a book or magazine from this collection in true library fashion, and all were invited to avail themselves of this opportunity. Several books were recommended as being excellent starters for the directors. Mrs. John Croghan reported that the Community Council dinner; the annual meeting of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs had been adequately covered by the delegates from the Association. Mrs. Wallace Ross urged the directors to attend conferences, held in their respective villages, of the Well-Baby Conferences. A signal honor has been accorded this Association as being chosen to participate in the association in that one of the nurses, the Maternity Institute, sponsored by the Massachusetts League of Nursing Education; the Massachusetts Organization for Public Health Nursing and the State Department of Health. This Institute will be held at the Massachusetts Memorial Hospital on May 25 and 26. Miss Nelson reported that a staff of six regular nurses; one substitute and four student nurses from the Newton Hospital have made a total of 1715 home visits during the month of April, besides attending all seven Well-Baby Conferences and doing other work. A most instructive book review was presented by Mrs. Winslow Howland, on the subject of "Epilepsy." This particular subject was chosen as a result of a talk at a previous meeting, given by Mrs. Brooks Potter, secretary to the Layman's League Against Epilepsy, Inc. A bright outlook is given those subject to seizures, due to modern methods of treatment. Cooperation between the patient and his family is imperative, as well as faithful following of the diagnosis and the taking of prescribed medicine. The patient is urged to follow an out-door life, pursuit of hobbies and regular living. Society is urged to encourage and support medical research in this field.

A long felt want in our Hospital and serves not only members of the Hospital family and staff, but visitors to patients, visiting doctors, and many outsiders who have found this a happy stopping off place for refreshment. Some idea of the success of the Coffee Shop may be envisioned by Mrs. Walliser's statement that 100 customers a month are served. Don't forget that the Newton Hospital is your Hospital and needs and deserves your help in all its undertakings.

At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Eddy asked Mrs. Theron Walliser, president of the N. H. A. ass'n to tell of the progress of the H. A. newest child, (sister to the Benefit Shop) the coffee and gift shop started in the Hospital last July. NEWTON FLIER, DYING DRIVES PLANE INTO HILL

A delayed dispatch from England told how, on April 24, a former Newton High School athlete, seriously wounded in a raid over Munich and knowing he was doomed, calmly radioed his Thunderbolt pilot comrades that he was going to crash.

Without emotion, Lt. John E. Hayden, 23, of 45 Old Farm road, Newton Centre, said: "My arm is shot off—I'm going in."

Other pilots who realized that "going in" meant he was going to crash, reported they saw his plane crash into a hillside. Before he was wounded, the young pilot, part of an escort for Flying Fortresses, helped blast a German Messerschmitt out of the air.

Col. Morton Magoffin of Deerwood, Minn., and San Antonio, Tex., group commander, said the act "was one of the most courageous things I ever heard of anybody doing."

Lt. Hayden, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Hayden of Newton, gained recognition last March when, before strafing a French locomotive, he swooped down and fired a warning burst in front of the engine, risking fire from a nearby flak tower, until the engineer jumped out. Then he completed the job.

Following his graduation from Newton High, where he played football, tennis and hockey, Lt. Hayden attended Admiral Farragut Naval Academy in New Jersey. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps two years ago and received his wings in 1943. He was cadet captain at all air fields at which he trained.

His parents received word on May 9 that he was missing in action as of April 24. Five days earlier he had been awarded the Air Medal. At that time his parents received a letter from Brig. Gen. E. R. Quesada. Attached to the form letter reporting the award was a handwritten note, which said: "You certainly must be proud of your boy. We are."

Home After 28 Months In Pacific Zone

Pfc. Albert Caliguri, son of Mrs. Rose Caliguri of 43 Riverdale ave., Newton, arrived at his home last Friday after spending 28 months in the Pacific battle zone, 15 months of which was spent in battling the Japanese at Guadalcanal and Bougainville.

Pvt. Caliguri is one of the 200 veterans of the famous American Division who arrived at Fort Devens under the Army's rotation plan. He was a member of the division's signal corps. He brought with him the Presidential citation.

Pvt. Caliguri wired his mother from San Francisco that he was on his way home. The only other Newton man he said he saw in the contingent was Sgt. Joseph Nolan Newton Corner. The trip from the Pacific he said took only three weeks. After spending a three weeks' furlough at his home he will report to Fort Putnam, North Carolina for reclassification.

He has two brothers in the service, Cpl. Salvatore Caliguri, who is in England with an armored division, and A. M. M. 2/c Frank Caliguri, U. S. Navy, stationed in Oklahoma.

Pvt. Caliguri on his arrival home was greeted by his mother, a brother, Joseph, and his two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Mascia and Miss Rita Caliguri.

Awarded Degree By Colby College

Waterville, Me. — Dr. Hugh Laughlin Robinson of West Newton, lately returned on the Gripsholm from a Japanese internment camp in Manila, was awarded the honorary degree of Master of Arts at the 123rd annual Colby College Commencement on Sunday.

He was one of five so honored, while degrees in course were awarded to 45 seniors. It was noted that the class of 1944 had already graduated 35 under Colby's acceleration program, while 102 of the class were now serving with the armed forces.

President Julius Seelys Bixler of Colby presented Dr. Robinson with the following citation: "Hugh Laughlin Robinson: son of Colby, graduate of Harvard Medical School, missionary for many years in China where you commanded the respect of all whose lives you touched. You have recently won nation-wide prominence in your own country because of the intelligence, patience, and humor you showed as you ministered to the needs of your fellow prisoners of war in the distressing circumstances of an internment camp."

George Shillington, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. Henry Shillington of High street is ill with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Oldfield have returned from a short visit to their summer home at Epsom, N. H.

Richard E. Bunker, 38 Lakewood road, has achieved scholastic recognition for the second time at Wilbraham Academy, Wilbraham, according to an announcement by Headmaster Charles L. Stevens. Bunker, son of Everett L. Bunker, received honorable mention for the period ending May 20. He is prominent in Wilbraham sports, and is a member of the baseball team which recently defeated Monson Academy, 16-4. Miss May Tambo of Southbridge, Mass., was the recent guest of Miss Grace Pettis of Oak street. Dr. O. W. Warmingham will be the guest speaker on Sunday, at 10:45 a.m., at the First Methodist Church and at 7 p.m.
